

REFLECTION PAPER

Joining Bulano Accounting and Auditing Firm is one of the best experiences that I had in my college years. Through this firm, I didn't just spend time merely for compliance of the course but it has been an outlet for learning something new and a motivation to strive hard. All throughout the internship program, a lot of responsibilities was given to me from accounting to auditing. A greater knowledge of what accounting and auditing is all about was imparted to me.

The first day of my internship program was full of excitement. I was there with the hope of gaining knowledge that as I will step out of the firm when my OJT days will be over, I'll be a more confident woman when we speak of the accounting field. People around the firm are very approachable that I never had a hard time coping up with them. They were very hands on in guiding us interns. And the owner of the firm is a very down to earth person and I learned a lot from him. I learned that as a person, we should always keep our feet on the ground.

My expectations were not just met but were exceeded by my experiences. I already acquired skills in school but applying it to the field let me know more and more. I also learned to be more patient, objective and disciplined. Also, I learned to be considerate and to blend with workmates.

The whole journey of being an intern was a very wonderful experience. I have realized a lot of things like a full appreciation of how accounting world move. I am also grateful of this opportunity given by the university and the HTE. All of the things I learned are beyond my expectations so I am very thankful for all of it.

Assessing Student Learning Linda Suskie, 2018-01-09 Assessing Student Learning is a standard reference for college faculty and administrators and the third edition of this highly regarded book continues to offer comprehensive practical plainspoken guidance The third edition adds a stronger emphasis on making assessment useful greater attention to building a culture in which assessment is used to inform important decisions an enhanced focus on the many settings of assessment especially general education and co curricula a new emphasis on synthesizing evidence of student learning into an overall picture of an integrated learning experience new chapters on curriculum design and assessing the hard to assess more thorough information on organizing assessment processes new frameworks for rubric design and setting standards and targets and many new resources Faculty administrators new and experienced assessment practitioners and students in graduate courses on higher education assessment will all find this a valuable addition to their bookshelves Handbook of Moral Motivation Karin Heinrichs, Fritz Oser, Terence Lovat, 2013-06-12 The Handbook of Moral Motivation offers a contemporary and comprehensive appraisal of the age old question about motivation to do the good and to prevent the bad From a research point of view this question remains open even though we present here a rich collection of new ideas and data Two sources helped the editors to frame the chapters first they looked at an overwhelmingly fruitful research tradition on motivation in general attribution theory performance theory self determination theory etc in relationship to morality The second source refers to the tension between moral judgment feelings beliefs and the real moral act in a twofold manner a as a necessary duty and b as a social but not necessary bond In addition the handbook utilizes the latest research from a wide range of disciplinary perspectives wishing to suggest by this that the answer to the posed question will likely not come from one discipline alone Furthermore our hope is that the implicit criticism that the narrowly constructed research approach of the recent past has contributed to closing off rather than opening up interdisciplinary lines of research becomes in this volume a strong counter discourse The editors and authors of the handbook commend the research contained within in the hope that it will contribute to better understanding of humanity as an inherently moral species Business and Management Internships Kawana Johnson, 2021-07-22 Research shows that internships are the dominant form of experiential learning used in business schools worldwide providing practical insight into a job role for students and enhancing their employability This book provides practical resources that practitioners and students can use to maximize the overall internship experience by explaining business education internships skill development and employment outcomes It also includes material to assist in the development or enhancement of internship programs to create a high quality internship course while providing guidance on reflecting and evaluating the learning gained from the experience Including quizzes and short activities this book can be used as a companion text for any student participating in an internship or as a guide that practitioners in this field can use to help design their own internship program and course content Business schools are increasing their focus on experiential learning and are encouraging faculty to incorporate internships into their existing curriculum Linking theory history and practice this book is ideal reading for students participating in an internship for academic credit and as a guidebook for business school practitioners who wish to start or improve their existing academic internship program

Race, Poverty, and Social Justice José Z. Calderón, 2023-07-03 This volume explores multiple examples of how to connect classrooms to communities through service learning and participatory research to teach issues of social justice The various chapters provide examples of how collaborations between students faculty and community partners are creating models of democratic spaces on campus and off campus where the students are teachers and the teachers are students The purpose of this volume is to provide examples of how service learning can be integrated into courses addressing social justice issues At the same time it is about demonstrating the power of service learning in advancing a course content that is community based and socially engaged To stimulate the adaptation of the approaches described in these books each volume includes an Activity Methodology table that summarizes key elements of each example such as class size pedagogy and other disciplinary applications Click here for the table to this title
