Letters to a Young Poet Rainer Maria Rilke, 2019-04-17 Born in Prague when it was part of the Austro-Hungarian empire and recognized today as a master of verse, poet Rainer Maria Rilke was considerably less well known in 1902 when he received a heartfelt letter from an aspiring poet. A 19-year-old student sent Rilke some of his verses seeking an opinion of their worth. Rilke declined to offer a critique, instead encouraging the student to rely upon his own inner judgment. Nobody can advise and help you; nobody. There is only one single means: Go inside yourself. This seemingly dismissive letter proved to be the first of ten written during a six-year period that coincided with an important stage in Rilke's artistic development. The poet offered his young correspondent further advice on developing a rich inner life as well as guidance on broader philosophical and existential issues. These letters, which explore many of the themes that later emerged in Rilke's best works, remain a captivating source of insights into the artistic identity and process. Letters to a Young Poet Rainer Maria Rilke, Franz Xaver Kappus, Damion Searls, 2020-11-10 The ultimate expression of intergenerational literary wisdom.
