How Much Land Does a Man Need? Count Leo Nikolayevich Tolstoy, 1828-1910 Gra, 2026-01-05 How Much Land Does a Man Need by Leo Tolstoy is one of the most enduring moral short stories in world literature First published in 1886 this classic tale examines greed ambition property and the illusion of wealth through a simple but devastating narrative Set in rural Russia the story follows a peasant whose desire for land grows without limit revealing the destructive consequences of material obsession Tolstoy uses plain language and folklike structure to deliver a sharp ethical critique of private ownership social inequality and the human craving for more than is necessary As the protagonist seeks security through land accumulation he becomes trapped by his own desires illustrating Tolstoy's belief that moral failure arises not from poverty but from excess The story addresses themes of mortality temptation self deception and the contrast between spiritual sufficiency and material accumulation Widely taught in schools and studied in philosophy ethics and literature courses How Much Land Does a Man Need remains relevant for readers interested in moral philosophy social justice agrarian life and critiques of capitalism It stands alongside Tolstoy's later ethical writings in its rejection of materialism and its insistence on simplicity restraint and inner freedom This edition presents a timeless literary parable whose central question continues to
