Banking's Final Exam Morris Goldstein, 2017-05-30 Spurred by the success of the first stress test of US banks toward the end of the global economic crisis in 2009 stress testing of large financial institutions has become the cornerstone of banking supervision worldwide The aim of the tests is to determine which banks are adequately capitalized under severe economic shocks and to order corrective measures for those that are vulnerable In Banking's Final Exam one of the world's leading experts on banking regulation concludes that the tests administered on both sides of the Atlantic suffer from fundamental weaknesses leading to a false sense of reassurance about the safety and soundness of the banking system Some weaknesses can be corrected within the existing bank capital regime but others will require bold reforms including higher minimum capital requirements for the largest and most systemically important banks The banking industry is likely to resist these reforms but this book explains why their objections do not hold water

Urbanization and Industrialization for Africa's Transformation, 2017 The 2017 Economic Report on Africa focuses on the linkages between industrialization and urbanization Urbanization is one of Africa's mega trends with profound implications for the social economic environmental dimensions of growth and transformation Theory and experience demonstrate that industrialization and urbanization can be mutually reinforcing processes It is therefore imperative to explore the linkages between urbanization and industrialization given the profound implications for structural transformation in Africa So far current policy narratives and frameworks on structural transformation and industrialization in Africa have largely failed to factor in the spatial and urban dimensions of industrialization and in particular the advantages presented by productivity enhancement and agglomeration effects generated by cities Yet the nexus between urbanization and industrialization is of particular relevance for Agenda 2063 and the 2030 Agenda on Sustainable Development Both agendas recognize urbanization as a critical factor for sustainable development It is also important to consider urbanization and industrialization in light of Africa's engagement with the Third United Nations Conference on Housing and Sustainable Urban Development Habitat III to be held in Quito Ecuador in October 2016 In this context African policy makers have clearly recognized urbanization as an engine of structural transformation for inclusive and sustainable growth

Rethinking Development Strategies After the Financial Crisis Alfredo Fernando Calcagno, Sebastian Dullien, Alejandro Márquez-Velázquez, Nicolas Maystre, Jan Priewe, United Nations Conference on Trade and Development, Fachhochschule für Technik und Wirtschaft Berlin, 2015 Recent economic trends and the challenges posed by the global crisis reinforce the importance of implementing strategies for development as opposed to leaving the economy to market forces Countries need a strategic compass for long run economic development This comprises macroeconomic policies sectoral policies including financial sector trade and industrial policies institution building in key areas and development friendly global governance Within a chosen medium or long term strategy governments need more policy space to adjust to the specific and evolving social historical and institutional context In this volume issues that all developing countries need to handle are discussed The Review of Economics and Statistics ,1920 The purpose of the Review is to promote the collection criticism and interpretation of economic statistics with a view to making them more accurate and valuable than they are at present for business and scientific purposes International Labour Review ,2015 the Pacific,2016 The Asia Pacific Countries with Special Needs Development Report 2016 explores ways to adapt the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development to the unique circumstances capacities and levels of development of the Asia Pacific Least Developed Countries LDCs Landlocked Developing Countries LLDCs and Small Island Developing States SIDS collectively referred to as Countries with Special Needs CSN For that purpose it proposes a unique analytical framework based on cutting edge methods from complexity science coupled with economic analyses to guide countries on the prioritization and sequencing of the attainment of the Sustainable Development Goals SDG in the most effective manner The framework allows for the identification of synergies trade offs and bottlenecks in attaining different Goals The report also takes stock of the progress of CSN towards their respective global programmes of action analyses the relationship between the programmes of action and the 2030 Agenda and examines current perceptions of experts and practitioners from 25 CSN on how their countries should prioritize and sequence the achievement of the Goals Register University of California, Berkeley,1927 Arab Middle Class ,2014 The present report studies the Arab middle class an important social group that is relatively little understood despite the fundamental role it has played in shaping the economic and social development outcomes in the Arab region This report contributes to the ongoing debate about factors that led to the Arab uprisings and the difficult transitions to democracy that followed the departure of long standing dictators by marking elements influencing middle class allegiances specifically those that weakened their well established alliances with ruling regimes The report is motivated by the conviction on the basis of past development experiences that a new Arab development model can only succeed if the middle class plays a lead role in designing and implementing processes of economic transformation and political transition Studying the middle class is therefore crucial to interpreting the past understanding the present and reading the potential future development prospects of the Arab region This report introduces three novel approaches aimed at charting a path for sustaining empowering and enlarging the middle class The first is related to the measurement of the middle class based on a definition that takes into account both the quantity and quality of their consumption expenditure The second relates to the profiling of the Arab middle class using variables such as education employment and mobility in addition to multidimensional poverty The third novel approach lies in using these results to provide a narrative of the socioeconomic context of the decade leading up to the uprisings from a middle class perspective The report concludes that the empowerment of the Arab middle class could pave a way out of the current development and governance debacle towards an Arab developmental State Publisher s description Annual Report Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas,2016 State of Kenya Population Report 2015 ,2015 The First Great Financial Crisis of the 21st Century James R. Barth,George G. Kaufman,2015 Although there have been numerous studies of the causes and consequences of the Great Financial Crisis of 2007 2010 in the US and abroad many of these were undertaken only for a small number of countries and before the financial and economic effects were fully realized and before various governmental policy responses were decided upon and actually implemented This book aims to fill these voids by providing a more thorough assessment now that the worst events and the regulatory reforms are sufficiently behind us and much more information about these developments is available It reviews and analyzes the causes and consequences of and the regulatory responses to the Great Financial Crisis particularly from a public policy viewpoint In the process it explores such intriguing questions as What caused the crisis How did the crisis differ across countries What is the outlook for another crisis and when This is a must read for those who are trying to find answers to these questions
