Planning:

- Use a mind map.
- The central 'bubble' of your mind map needs to state your decision (agree or disagree).
- The 'bubbles' of your mind map must not be organized according to paragraphs, but rather according to themes.
- You need to have at least 4 major themes/supporting arguments so your mind map should comprise of at least 4 'bubbles' and each 'bubble' should include the following:
 - list of key points that will be used to discuss the theme;
 - list of source(s) that will be used for each key point and note down which sources are of good quality;
 - a counter argument and the source that refers to the counter argument.

Note : There needs to be at least one theme that does not have a counter argument (you need a minimum of 3 counter arguments). You could, alternatively, list all counter arguments and their sources in a separate 'bubble'.

Essay Outline:

Introduction:

- Define any scientific terminology used in the topic – this is a good opportunity to incorporate your own knowledge into the essay.
- Must indicate the decision that you have made (agree or disagree).
- Do not mention any of the points that you plan to discuss in the essay.

Body:

- Arrange your paragraphs according to themes (not according to sources). Some themes may require multiple paragraphs, so ensure that length of paragraphs are not excessive.
- Use linking words at the start of each new paragraph (eg: "furthermore", "also", "additionally", etc).
- A general outline to follow for discussion of each theme:
 - State the theme to be discussed;
 - State and elaborate on the supporting argument(s). Make reference to sources used for each argument and the quality of the source (if applicable);
 - State the counter argument to your supporting arguments (if applicable) and make reference to the source used;
 - Always counter any counter argument that you give to indicate to the reader why it was not enough to sway your decision. This is also a good opportunity to incorporate own knowledge into the essay. Link this back to the topic.

Conclusion:

- Give a brief summary of all the major themes that was discussed in the essay.
