Literature as an Art Form - Evolving Intermedial Literary Landscape Asunción López-Varela Azcárate, 2025-07-02 Literature as an Art Form Evolving Intermedial Literary Landscape brings together sixteen scholarly contributions that explore literature's ongoing transformation across media cultures and technologies This anthology traces the dynamic interplay between literature and visual sonic performative and algorithmic forms ranging from illuminated manuscripts and oral traditions to digital texts and anime Rejecting the notion of literature as a fixed verbal art the chapters highlight its status as a transmedial evolving practice shaped by and shaping the environments in which it is situated Each essay examines how literature migrates across modalities revealing it as a mutable process of techno po esis Together they offer a compelling vision of literature not as an autonomous artefact but as a fluid cultural phenomenon whose conditions of existence are inseparable from intermedial exchange The Routledge

Handbook of Translation and Methodology Federico Zanettin, Christopher Rundle, 2022-03-10 The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Methodology provides a comprehensive overview of methodologies in translation studies including both well established and more recent approaches The Handbook is organised into three sections the first of which covers methodological issues in the two main paradigms to have emerged from within translation studies namely skopos theory and descriptive translation studies The second section covers multidisciplinary perspectives in research methodology and considers their application in translation research The third section deals with practical and pragmatic methodological issues Each chapter provides a summary of relevant research a literature overview critical issues and topics recommendations for best practice and some suggestions for further reading Bringing together over 30 eminent international scholars from a wide range of disciplinary and geographical backgrounds this Handbook is essential reading for all students and scholars involved in translation methodology and research Comparing Literatures: Aspects, Method, and Orientation Alison

McIntosh-Varjabédian, Fiona Boulanger, 2022-04-04 Globalization is not a new phenomenon Ideas have been circulating all over Europe and the world since ancient times and intercultural dialog is a wide field offering a great variety of approaches In such times as ours when the world is swift to change and cultures are destined to meet sometimes alas to clash the place of literature or broadly speaking human and social sciences within society is often questioned and needs redefining From the reception studies of the 1970s and 1980s to the stress laid on intermedial and intercultural relations not forgetting the work done on cultural transfers this question opens up a wide field of theoretic methodological and aesthetic research which is explored through this volume Handbook of Anglophone World Literatures Stefan Helgesson, Birgit

Neumann, Gabriele Rippl, 2020-09-07 Introduction to Medio-Translatology Xie Tianzhen, 2023-07-20 This book offers a comprehensive introduction to medio translatology including its historical and literary setting its core concept and its practice and theory Medio translatology inspired by scholarship in comparative literature and the cultural turn in Western translation studies has tackled many issues which previously went unnoticed or were ignored in traditional translation studies in China it falls within the scope of literary studies and cultural studies extending beyond the confines of language and treating literary translations and translating as historical facts Emerging from comparative literature medio translatology looks at literary translation from a new and broader perspective and explains with illustrative and compelling examples that literary translation is an act of creative treason The originality of this approach is also evident in its distinguishing between the history of translated literature and the history of literary translation as well as in its addressing the nature and status of translated literature The Chinese edition of this book being the first of its kind and well received in China has been hailed as a milestone in exploring translation studies in the context of comparative literature in Chinese academia and it introduces to students and researchers alike a wide range of new thoughts and ideas Reading the Past Across Space and Time Brenda Deen Schildgen, Ralph Hexter, 2017-03-02 Featuring leading scholars in their fields this book examines receptions of ancient and early modern literary works from around the world China Japan Ancient Maya Ancient Mediterranean Ancient India Ancient Mesopotamia that have circulated globally across time and space from East to West North to South South to West Beginning with the premise of an enduring and revered cultural past the essays go on to show how the circulation of literature through translation and other forms of reception in fact long predates modern global society the idea of national literary canons have existed just over a hundred years and emerged with the idea of national educational curricula Highlighting the relationship of culture and politics in which canons are created translated promulgated and preserved this book argues that such nationally defined curricula were challenged by critics and writers in the wake of the Second World War Recasting American and Persian Literatures Amirhossein Vafa, 2016-12-09 Reading literary and cinematic events between and beyond American and Persian literatures this book questions the dominant geography of the East West divide which charts the global circulation of texts as World Literature Beyond the limits of national literary historiography and neocolonial cartography of world literary discourse the minor character Parsee Fedallah in Herman Melville's Moby Dick 1851 is a messenger who travels from the margins of the American literature canon to his Persian literary counterparts in contemporary Iranian fiction and film above all the rural woman Mergan in Mahmoud Dowlatabadi's novel Missing Soluch 1980 In contention with Eurocentric treatments of world literatures and in recognition of efforts to recast the worldliness of American and Persian literatures this book maintains that aesthetic properties are embedded in their local histories and formative geographies Comparative literature as a critical approach International Comparative Literature Association.
