Climatological Data, New York United States. Environmental Data Service,1957      Documents of the Assembly of the State of New York New York (State). Legislature. Assembly,1898      Documents of the Senate of the State of New York New York (State). Legislature. Senate,1892      New York Court of Appeals. Records and Briefs. New York (State).,      The New York Times Index ,1926      Managing Records as Evidence and Information Richard J. Cox,2000-12-30 For the past three decades policies regarding a variety of information issues have emanated from federal agencies legislative chambers and corporate boardrooms Despite the focus on information policy it is still a relatively new concept and one only now beginning to be studied The subject area is wider than believed archives and records policies information resources management information technology telecommunications international communications privacy and confidentiality computer regulation and crime intellectual property and information systems and dissemination This is not a compendium of policies to be used but rather an exploration in a more detailed fashion of the fundamental principles supporting the setting of records policies Records policies are critically important for records professionals to develop and use as a means of strategically managing the information and evidence found in the millions of records created daily provided that the policies are based on comprehensible principles This is a series of discourses on the fundamentals of archives and records management needing to be understood before any organization attempts to define and set any policy affecting records and information The chapters concern defining records how information technology plays into policy compiling the fundamental tasks of identifying and maintaining records as critical to records and information policy public outreach and advocacy as a key objective for such policy and the role of educating records professionals in supporting sensible records policies      The Map Thief Michael Blanding,2014-05-29 The story of an infamous crime a revered map dealer with an unsavory secret and the ruthless subculture that consumed him Maps have long exerted a special fascination on viewers both as beautiful works of art and as practical tools to navigate the world But to those who collect them the map trade can be a cutthroat business inhabited by quirky and sometimes disreputable characters in search of a finite number of extremely rare objects Once considered a respectable antiquarian map dealer E Forbes Smiley spent years doubling as a map thief until he was finally arrested slipping maps out of books in the Yale University library The Map Thief delves into the untold history of this fascinating high stakes criminal and the inside story of the industry that consumed him Acclaimed reporter Michael Blanding has interviewed all the key players in this stranger than fiction story and shares the fascinating histories of maps that charted the New World and how they went from being practical instruments to quirky heirlooms to highly coveted objects Though pieces of the map theft story have been written before Blanding is the first reporter to explore the story in full and had the rare privilege of having access to Smiley himself after he d gone silent in the wake of his crimes Moreover although Smiley swears he has admitted to all of the maps he stole libraries claim he stole hundreds more and offer intriguing clues to prove it Now through a series of exclusive interviews with Smiley and other key individuals Blanding teases out an astonishing tale of destruction and redemption The Map Thief interweaves Smiley s escapades with the stories of the explorers and mapmakers he knew better than anyone Tracking a series of thefts as brazen as the art heists in Provenance and a subculture as obsessive as the oenophiles in The Billionaire s Vinegar Blanding has pieced together an unforgettable story of high stakes crime United States Bulletin Service ,1919 American Book Prices Current ,1895 A record of literary properties sold at auction in the United States Bulletin of the Public Library of the City of Boston Boston Public Library,1918 Who's who in Finance, Banking, and Insurance ,1922 Sale Catalogues American Art Association, Anderson Galleries (Firm),inc American art association Aderson galleries,1921 The Sailors' Magazine and Seamen's Friend ,1881 First Editions of Ten American Authors Jacob Chester Chamberlain,1909 The Library of the Late William S.
