History of the Pauline Corpus in Texts, Transmissions and Trajectories Chris S. Stevens, 2020-06-15 In History of the Pauline Corpus in Texts Transmissions and Trajectories Chris S Stevens examines the Greek manuscripts of the Pauline texts from P46 to Claromontanus Previous research is often hindered by the lack of a systematic analysis and an indelicate linguistic methodology This book offers an entirely new analysis of the early life of the Pauline corpus Departing from traditional approaches this text critical work is the first to use Systemic Functional Linguistics which enables both the comparison and ranking of textual differences across multiple manuscripts Furthermore the analysis is synchronically oriented so it is non evaluative The results indicate a highly uniform textual transmission during the early centuries The systematic analysis challenges previous research regarding text types Christological scribal alterations and textual trajectories

Service-Learning for Youth Leadership Daniel T. L. Shek, Grace Ngai, Stephen C. F. Chan, 2018-08-13 This book examines service learning a valuable means of promoting civic engagement and youth leadership in students by enabling them to apply their knowledge to needy people in the community It describes selected service learning projects in different areas by highlighting the subjects being offered service sites completed service projects evaluation findings and teachers reflections Although service learning has increased tremendously in the West its development in different Chinese societies is still in its infancy As such this book provides valuable insights on the implementation and future directions of the service learning movement in China by documenting lessons learned and sharing success stories It also discusses related evaluation findings and impacts on students to show that service learning can increase students empathy social awareness social responsibility and psychosocial skills and as a result can improve their quality of life In addition the book highlights how service learning activities promote the well being of the clients and communities being served It also stimulates thinking and sharpens the thoughts of educators administrators and those who wish to promote the quality of life of students and service recipients through service learning

Industrial Efficiency and State Intervention Dr Nick Tiratsoo, Nick Tiratsoo, Jim Tomlinson, 2005-09-30 Nick Tiratsoo and Jim Tomlinson describe and assess the Labour Party's development of a policy of improving industrial efficiency They concentrate on the debates and initiatives of the wartime period and subsequent implementation of policy under Attlee The book modifies existing historiography in two ways it shows that the Labour Party of 1945-51 was concerned mainly with industrial modernization not with creating the Welfare State and it tackles the consequently necessary re-evaluation of wider theories about Britain's economic decline

Scalometry and the Pauline Epistles George K. Barr, 2004-06-15 Scale is well known and understood in creative arts such as architecture sculpture and music but New Testament scholars have given no significant consideration to scale changes in the Biblical texts A robust methodology allows scale changes in literature to be examined scientifically and reveals scale-related patterns in the epistles To determine the significance of these patterns George Barr has conducted a wide survey covering many texts in Greek Latin and English It reveals that the patterns found in the New Testament are very rare indeed if not unique and gives grounds for the belief that such patterns are associated with authorship The patterns found in the Pauline epistles clarify some theories regarding the origins of the epistles and in some cases shed new light on their compilation
