

FUNDAMENTALS OF REPORT WRITING

POLICE REPORT

Police Report is any written matter prepared by the Police involving their interaction with the community.

Police Report is an exact narration of facts discovered during the course of crime investigation which serves as a permanent written record for future reference.

Police Report is a permanent written record of police activities classified as informal and formal which communicates important facts concerning people involved in criminal activities.

According to Dr. Oscar Soriano, the report is basically a story of actions performed by man. A police report is a chronological or step-by-step account of an accident that transpired in a given time, at a given place. It is also defined as an account of an investigation, or an official statement of facts. Police reports result from the fact that someone has asked for them and needs them for immediate or future use. In any event, police reporting has become one of the most significant processes in modern police operations.

PURPOSES OF POLICE REPORT

- Written report to serve as the raw materials from which records systems are made.
- Written report to reveal as part of the component of the record system, the direct relationship between the efficiency of the department, quality of its reports and reporting procedures.
- Written report to guide police administrators for policy formulation and decision making.
- Written report to serve as a gauge/yardstick for efficiency evaluation of police officers.
- Written report to guide prosecutors and courts in the trial of criminal cases investigated by the police.

IMPORTANT USES OF REPORT WRITING

- Reports serve as records for administration in planning, directing, and organizing the unit's duties.
- Reports can be used as legal documents in the prosecution of criminals.
- Reports are utilized by other agencies.
- Reports can be useful to tri-media for public information purposes.
- Reports can be utilized for research purposes.
- Reports improve the personality of the writer.

CRITERIA TO BE CONSIDERED IN REPORT WRITING

1. Clarity — The police report must be clear and it should be written directly and easy to understand.
2. Accuracy — The police report must conform with the established rules of syntax, format, spelling and grammar. The data presented must be precise and the information given must be factual.
3. Brevity — The police report, must be short, with simple sentences, common words and easy to understand
4. Specificity — The police report must be specific by using concrete examples. A good descriptive narration gives life to the written words through particular terms that project hues, movements, quantities and shapes
5. Completeness — The police report must be complete by using the 5V's and 1H.
6. Timeliness - The police report must be submitted on time. As much as possible immediately after the incident has happened.
7. Security - That police report must be considered classified, hence, transmission, handling, and access to these reports should be limited
