How does the writer use language to describe the rain and the storm? [12 marks]

The writer use language to present the rain and storm as an overpowering, malevolent force, that dictates the farm. The writer describes how 'suddenly there was a squall of activity', and the adverb 'suddenly' suggests that the rain and storm had ultimate control, as it immediately 'darkened' the campsite without warning, suggesting that it isn't dictated by human wishes. This idea of the rain and storm having ultimate control is supported by its 'thick, steady drops', with the adjective 'steady' implying the rain's intention to be destructive and disturb the holidays of the families.

This theme of control is further carried through the violent and forceful verbs where 'awning' were 'wrenched' and windows were 'slammed shut'. The use of sibilance in 'slammed shut' creates a sense of harshness, with the verb 'slammed' suggesting that the rain and storm is furious by the carelessness of humans and seeking revenge for the maltreatment
