Home Affairs Committee,2013 The threat of a cyber attack to the UK is so serious it is marked as a higher threat than a nuclear attack One can steal more on the internet than they can by robbing a bank and online criminals in 25 countries have chosen the UK as their number one target Astonishingly some are operating from EU countries If we don t have a 21st century response to this 21st century crime we will be letting those involved in these gangs off the hook After a 10 month inquiry the Committee concluded that a dedicated state of the art espionage response team should be established so that attacks can be immediately reported Banks must be required to report all e crime fraud to law enforcement it is alarmed that CEOP is having its budget cut by 10% over 4 years its experienced Chief Executive is leaving and it could lose its laser like focus when merged with the National Crime Agency it is still too easy for people to access inappropriate online content and those responsible need to take stronger action to remove such content the Government should draw up a mandatory code of conduct with them to remove material which breaches acceptable standards the DPP should review sentencing guidance and ensure e criminals receive the same sentences as if they had stolen the same amount of money or data offline the Government should look at setting up a similar organisation to the Internet Watch Foundation focused on reporting and removing online terrorist content

The Potential and Peril of Reviewing Domestic Abuse-Related Deaths James Rowlands, 2025-03-28 Considering the potential and peril of Domestic Abuse Related Death Reviews DARDRs in England and Wales as a way of learning from domestic abuserelated deaths this book examines what DARDRs first known as Domestic Homicide Reviews DHRs are understood as being for what is used by and in DARDRs and how DARDRs are themselves used Drawing on rich empirical data this text combines information gathered from published DARDRs as well as from the experiences of stakeholders including representatives from organisations who had contact with a victim and those who knew them personally This analysis is further underpinned by the author s distinct perspective as a practitioner which includes having led DARDRs as an independent chair Setting out an approach that frames the review of domestic abuse related deaths as a means of achieving justice the book addresses best practice in making sense of domestic abuse related deaths the efforts to drive practice policy and systems change and the memorialisation of victims with a view to improving responses to domestic abuse for all victims survivors and perhaps to prevent future deaths The Potential and Peril of Reviewing Domestic Abuse Related Deaths will be of great interest to students and scholars of criminology social work and sociology as a way of understanding the policy and practice of trying to make sense of and respond to domestic abuse related deaths Report of William Stein, Edward Roderick, and Edward Brennan Pennsylvania. Development (Official Development Assistance Target) Bill Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: International Development Committee, 2010-03-23 In 1970 the UN General Assembly called on the economically advanced countries to provide 0.7% of their income as Official Development Assistance ODA by the middle of the decade In 2004 the UK committed to meet the target by 2013 The Government proposes to enshrine in law its commitment to meet the target in 2010 and each subsequent year Whilst the legislation is widely welcomed the Committee remains uncertain that it will have the wider impact claimed The accountability measures contained in the draft Bill weaken the commitment and provide the Government with an easy excuse for not meeting the target The 2002 International Development Act stipulates that DFID s expenditure on ODA should have poverty reduction as its primary objective With increasing pressure to find additional finance for responding to climate change or to new types of security threats there is a danger that increased amounts of UK ODA will be used for purposes only marginally related to poverty reduction The Government must take appropriate steps to guard against this whether or not the Bill becomes law Ultimately the Committee supports the 0.7% goal and feels the UK should maintain and build on its reputation as a donor
