THE (TITLES), WHY (PURPOSE) AND (AUDIENCE) AND (CONTEXT) AND (TONE) AND (FORM) (STRUCTURE) at the top of the question paper and use it to help you structure your response to the poem.

If you find the poem difficult and don't really understand it, here are a few things you can do which will help to gain you marks. (Having coloured highlighters available helps!)

- > Underline all the verbs – then choose an interesting one and explain why the poet has used it.
- > Underline all the visual images and pick one which you find particularly vivid to comment on.
- > Underline all the words employed in the poem. There might be choices of they are uncommon, but look for examples of personification or personae or alliteration or allusion or internal rhyme. Then you can pick one or two and explain the effect the poet was trying to achieve.
- > Underline all the adjectives and choose one which you think is used in an interesting/important way.
- > Underline any similes and metaphors in the poem. Pick out one or two and explain what they mean. Say why they are effective.
- > Look at the places where the poet has chosen to break the lines. Find one line break that you can comment on which shows either an emphasis (like some particular words/phrases for instance).
- > Always refer to the poet by his surname in your answer.

Before writing your answer, read the poem first or three times. Then try to grasp its meaning – what is the theme, what is the tone, what is the poet trying to say about the world/the structure and language of the poem, you will gain an insight into the poem's meaning. The more times you read the poem, the more you will understand the meaning of the poem.

Having said that, contemporary poetry is sometimes difficult to interpret. It can often have several meanings, or the meaning can be ambiguous. Sometimes, the poet doesn't want it to have any particular meaning, preferring instead the reader takes his/her own interpretation. You are allowed to be as open and free judgemental as possible when assessing the various poetic questions.

The poet communicates thoughts, emotions and ideas to the reader through a particular choice of words and structure. The objective of the poem can differ. Sometimes the poem might challenge readers' perceptions of how they view things, and help them see things in a different light. For some people, poetry is highly personal, and they engage with poems on a subjective level. In this case, you can learn a lot about life and understanding life through poems.

To help you gain a deeper understanding of what the meaning or content of a poem, try answering the following:

Before

- > What does the poem seem to be the poem about or ideas of the poem, approaching it from the source.
- > Note the key words or phrases repeated throughout the poem.
- > Think about why the stanzas/lines are structured in a particular way.
- > Explain the relationships throughout the poem.
