

Paper 3: The Second World War and the Americas Lessons

Directions: Below are a series of documents related to American foreign policy from 1931 to America's entrance into the Second World War after the surprise attack at Pearl Harbor. Answer the questions at the end of each document and create a well-organized essay answering the "Aim" question: Historians have argued that America was incapable of remaining "silent" as events in East Asia and in Europe threatened America's national security. President Roosevelt, according to these historians, was compelled to change America's foreign policy to meet the international situation at-hand before and immediately after Japan's attack on Pearl Harbor. Assess the validity of this statement by analyzing the documents below and on your knowledge of the era in United States History.

Document 1: The Stimson Doctrine (7 January 1932).

With the recent military operations about Chinchow, the last remaining administrative authority of the Government of the Chinese Republic in South Manchuria, as it existed prior to September 18th, 1931, has been destroyed. The American Government continues confident that the work of the neutral commission recently authorized by the Council of the League of Nations will facilitate an ultimate solution of the difficulties now existing between China and Japan. But in view of the present situation and of its own rights and obligations therein, the American Government deems it to be its duty to notify both the Imperial Japanese Government and the Government of the Chinese Republic that it cannot admit the legality of any situation de facto nor does it intend to recognize any treaty or agreement entered into between those Governments, or agents thereof, which may impair the treaty rights of the United States or its citizens in China, including those which relate to the sovereignty, the independence, or the territorial and administrative integrity of the Republic of China, or to the international policy relative to China, commonly known as the open door policy, and that it does not intend to recognize any situation, treaty or agreement which may be brought about by means contrary to the covenants and obligations of the Pact of Paris of August 27, 1928, to which Treaty both China and Japan, as well as the United States, are parties.

Questions:

1. According to the Stimson Doctrine, how did the United States view the agreements made between China and Japan?
2. How did the United States view Japanese actions in China? (Hint: What major treaty was violated by Japan's actions in China?)
