Sample Essay for This Exercise
Native speakers play the dominant role in the world. They have more in the way of power and resources than any other group. The world is not a level playing field. The world is a place where the rich and powerful rule and the poor and powerless are ruled. This is the way it has always been and it will always be this way.

...and the world is a place where the rich and powerful rule and the poor and powerless are ruled. This is the way it has always been and it will always be this way.
