

Dear Admissions Committee,

PROOF OF ENGLISH LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY

I am writing to apply for admission to your esteemed university, and I would like to bring to your attention the fact that I had my undergraduate studies conducted entirely in English. I strongly believe that my background in the English language should be sufficient proof of my proficiency in the language and should be considered as a substitute for a language proficiency certificate.

Firstly, I would like to highlight the fact that the study of English language was a core component of my undergraduate program. Throughout my time at university, I was constantly challenged to improve my writing, speaking, and comprehension skills in English. This was not only limited to my language and literature classes, but it was also evident in my interactions with classmates and instructors, who were native speakers of the language.

Furthermore, the use of English as the medium of instruction at my university was not just limited to classrooms. It extended to all aspects of campus life, including student organizations, social events, and group projects. This constant exposure and use of the language provided me with ample opportunities to hone my language skills, both in terms of accuracy and fluency.

Lastly, I would like to mention that I have had a lot of international exposure and have interacted with people from various parts of the world. This has not only broadened my perspective but has also sharpened my English language skills, as I have had to use it as a means of communication with people from diverse linguistic backgrounds.

In conclusion, I strongly believe that my background in the English language, acquired through my undergraduate studies and international exposure, should serve as proof of my proficiency in the language. I am confident that I possess the necessary skills to excel in your esteemed university and make a valuable contribution to the academic community. I would appreciate the opportunity to attend your university and would be honoured to have my application considered without the requirement of a language proficiency certificate.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to further discuss my qualifications with you.

Yours Sincerely,

Abdussalam Abubakar Maina-Kaina,
