NEWSPEAK in the 21st Century David Edwards, David Cromwell, 2009-08-20 Media Lens mission is to correct the distorted vision of the liberal media A thorn in the side of the Guardian Independent Channel 4 and the BBC among many others it is constantly under counterfire by those it attacks These responses are collected in Newspeak They expose the arrogance and servility to power of our leading journalists and editors starring Andrew Marr Alan Rusbridger Roger Alton Jon Snow Jeremy Bowen and even George Monbiot Packed with forensic media analysis revealing the lethal bias in balanced reporting Even the best UK media turn out to be cheerleaders for government business and war Alongside an A Z of BBC propaganda and chapters on Iraq and climate change Newspeak focuses on the demonisation of Iran and Venezuela the Israel Palestine conflict the myth of impartial reporting and the dark art of smearing dissidents Iraq at the Crossroads Amy V. Cardosa, 2007 This book on Iraq focuses on the post Saddam government women in Iraq and the potential oil wealth remaining unrealised Iraq which was attacked by the United States to force a regime change faces an uncertain future because of internal strife outside forces such as the US and anti US entities and the effects of government inexperience and lack of legal and institutional infrastructures Minutes of Evidence Taken Before the Royal Commission on the War in South Africa Great Britain. play down the human costs of the war on Iraqi citizens This has allowed them to present their role as the benign guardians of Iraqi interests The authors deconstruct this narrative by presenting a portrait of the total carnage in Iraq today From Iraqi refugees in Syria Jordan and the West to civilians left behind and other witnesses this the story of the war told by those who experienced it firsthand

The Best War Ever Sheldon Rampton,John Stauber,2006-09-14 The war in Iraq may be remembered as the point at which the propaganda model perfected in the twentieth century stopped working the world is too complex information is too plentiful and as events in Iraq reveal propaganda makes bad policy The Best War Ever is about a war that was devised in fantasy and lost in delusion It highlights the futility of lying to oneself and others in matters of life and death And it offers lessons to the current generation so that at least in our time this never happens again As the team of Rampton and Stauber show in their first new book since President Bush s reelection the White House seems to have fooled no one as much as itself in the march toward a needless from a security perspective war in Iraq As the authors argue one of the most tragic consequences of the Bush administration s reliance on propaganda is its disdain for realistic planning in matters of war Repeatedly when faced with predictions of problems U S policymakers dismissed the warnings of Iraq experts choosing instead to promulgate its version of the war through conservative media outlets and PR campaigns The result has been too few troops on the ground to maintain security failure to anticipate the insurgency and oblivious disregard even contempt for critics in either party who attempted to assess the human and economic costs of the war Even now that withdrawal seems imminent however the administration and its allies continue their cover ups downplaying civilian deaths and military injuries employing marketing buzzwords like victory repeatedly to shore up public opinion and botched attempts through third party PR firms at creating phony news The Bush administration entered Iraq believing that its moral technological and military superiority would ensure victory abroad and that its mastery of the politics would win support at home Instead it found a morass of problems that do not lend themselves to moralistic technological or propaganda based solutions
