Grade Geography Paper November 2014:

On Unemployment Mark R. Reiff, 2015-10-07 With unemployment at historically high rates that show signs of becoming structural there is a pressing need for an in depth exploration of this economic injustice Unemployment is one of the problems most likely to put critical pressure on our political institutions disrupt the social fabric of our way of life and even threaten the continuation of liberalism itself Despite the obvious importance of the problem of unemployment however there has been a curious lack of attention paid to this issue by contemporary non Marxist political philosophers On Unemployment explores the moral implications of the problem of unemployment despite the continuing uncertainty involving both its causes and its cures Reiff takes up a series of questions about the nature of unemployment and what justice has to tell us about what we should do if anything to alleviate it The book comprehensively discusses the related theory and suggests how we might implement these more general observations in the real world It addresses the politics of unemployment and the extent to which opposition to some or all of the book s various proposals stem not from empirical disagreements about the best solutions but from more basic moral disagreements about whether the reduction of unemployment is indeed an appropriate moral goal This exciting new text will be essential for scholars and readers across business economics and finance as well as politics philosophy and sociology

The Trickle-Down Delusion John Seip, Dee Wood Harper, 2016-05-02 From inside the book Since 1980 the economy has been growing and productivity has been growing but trickle down values that we the American people promote pursuant to the Republican Party s conservative ideology have rigged the economy to continuously upwardly redistribute those revenues attributable to our increased productivity yielding a productivity wage disconnect resulting in increased concentration of income and wealth at the top in corporations and among older Americans beneficiaries of income from Social Security pensions and investments and continuing income due to delaying retirement and the lowest percentage of GDP attributable to wages and highest attributable to profits since World War II But trickle down has not only distorted our economic thought it has also distorted our political thought our sociology and our concept of the rule of law The result has been that the trickle down policies promoted by the Republican Party are undermining our economy democracy institutions and health For further discussion contact author at johnjseip gmail com

The Complacent Class Tyler Cowen,2017-02-28 Examines the trend of Americans away from the traditionally mobile risk accepting and adaptable tendencies that defined them for much of recent history and toward stagnation and comfort and how this development has the potential to make future changes more disruptive Publisher s description

Banking on Equality Supriti Bezbaruah,2015-03-24 It may well be surprising to say that the world should look to India as a model of gender equality India s banking sector proves the exception with several women reaching the highest positions in India s top banks including the country s largest bank Based on interviews and surveys of bank employees in India s National Capital Region this book looks at what lies behind the media rhetoric and provides a systematic analysis of patterns of and responses to gender inequality in the banking sector in India The book uncovers how gender discrimination still persists in the banking sector albeit in covert forms Through a comparison of nationalized Indian private and foreign banks the book demonstrates how the impact of laws local cultural norms and gendered workplace practices are mediated through different organizational forms in these different types of banks to create varied experiences of gender inequality The book is one of the first books to provide a thorough in depth analysis of women s employment in the Indian banking sector currently an under researched area

The Soul of a University Chris Brink,2018-07-01 What is the role of a university in society In this innovative book Chris Brink offers the timely reminder that it should have social purpose as well as achieve academic excellence The current obsession with rankings and league tables has perpetuated inequality and is preventing social mobility This book shows how universities can and should respond to societal challenges and promote positive social change

Birkbeck Joanna Bourke,2022 In 2023 Birkbeck University of London celebrates 200 years of educating working people in central London It was founded in 1923 as the London Mechanics Institution and from its inception was a pioneering and radical institution This history is animated by the conviction that Birkbeck is its people Their thoughts and ambitions hopes and dreams labour and laughter are what this book describes celebrates and occasionally laments It explores the history of education as well as the history of place politics radicalism class race gender disciplinarity theatre food leisure war and everyday encounters Most of all this book is about ideas What does it mean to be educated How have these meanings changed over time What makes Birkbeck students unique What does it mean to be fully human exploiting our faculties in order to become better people

Dynamic Shipping and Port Development in the Globalized Economy Paul Yae-Woo Lee, Kevin

Cullinane, 2016-04-29 This two volume book presents an in depth analysis of many of the most important issues facing today's shipping and port sectors Volume 1 of Dynamic Shipping and Port Development in the Globalized Economy focuses on the application of theory to practice in Maritime Logistics White Paper on Science and Technology, 2015 The Asia-Pacific Trade Agreement Joong-Wan Cho, Rajan Sudesh Ratna, 2016 International trade and investment have enabled many countries in the Asia Pacific region to boost economic growth and have lifted millions out of poverty As the Asia Pacific region continues to thrive economically trade and investment barriers are being dissolved and eliminated As countries begin to depend on each other more trade policy is gradually becoming a useful measure to achieve inclusive and sustainable development Trade and investment are linked to the environment and social issues hence their impacts are also multi dimensional It has now been recognized that sustainable production and consumption are essential for sustainable development Countries realize that they are not able to approach global and regional problems on their own and require cooperation both at the level of government and business As a result the region has been active in concluding regional cooperation frameworks which routinely are centered on trade and investment In the meantime business has forged regional integration through the formation of regional value chains and production networks while governments have paved the way for the expansion of such production networks through the formation of regional trade agreements and economic partnerships Thus the Asia Pacific Trade Agreement APTA which is the oldest preferential trade agreement in the region with a large consumer base can play an important role in filling this gap Given a slow progress in the multilateral negotiations in the WTO especially when the members have started questioning the utility of the negotiations after 15 years and a lack of consensus on how to move forward the regional trade agreements can play a vital role Even if they pose a challenge to the multilateralism selected liberalisation of trade and economy in present time can become a building block for future multilateral negotiations One of the reasons for the surge in these preferential trade agreements is to make binding commitments on WTO plus and WTO beyond issues While there are many agreements that exist in Asia and the Pacific there is no such attempt to consolidate them in one umbrella framework Understanding the benefits of the consolidation one such initiative was started by ESCAP a few years back The RECI initiative for market integration could well be facilitated by APTA however it cannot deliver unless it transforms itself in a new generation agreement Regional integration and cooperation are also important to meet the 2030 agenda for sustainable development Instead of wasting resources in discussing a new institutional framework it would be more effective to use the existing framework and for the Asia Pacific economies the APTA provides an existing institutional platform The cases discussed in this book prepare a ground for the future and it is expected that all the stakeholders member States of ESCAP private sector as well as researchers would benefit from this publication on APTA South South Regional Integration and Sustainable Development The Uganda Gazette Uganda,2015-12
