Teaching Learners of English in Mainstream Classrooms (K-8) Linda New Levine,Mary Lou McCloskey,2009 Teaching Learners of English in Mainstream Classrooms is a unique resource designed to help K 8 classroom teachers integrate language learning into the content curriculum This book helps teachers teach their grade level curriculum even though they may have English language learners in their classrooms By using the strategies provided teachers can promote content achievement for all of their students Specifically written for content teachers Linda New Levine and Mary

Lou McCloskey's clear and friendly writing style emphasizes practical application of known second language learning principles. The authors offer classroom teachers practical strategies and tools to integrate content and language learning, accelerating the academic achievement of their students. Techniques for developing reading, writing, and speaking skills in the content areas are also emphasized.

Literacy for Life Donna E. Norton, 2007. From Best Selling Author Donna Norton. Drawing on her expertise in using children's literature to foster literacy in today's classrooms, Donna Norton has crafted a contemporary, application-rich textbook that will prepare future teachers to put reading first and provide high-quality, research-based instruction in reading and the language arts. Book Earns High Praise From Reviewers. A great number of activities listed at the end of each chapter provide students with many opportunities to discuss the chapter content, apply to field work, and reflect.

Shelley Hong Xu, CSU Long Beach. Chapter 3: Assessment. This chapter is so current it is scary. This chapter helps to give a clear but realistic picture of the types of assessments our students will be faced with in the public schools.

Carol L. Butterfield, Ph.D., Central WA University. This publication marks a major advance over existing reading methods texts. It broadens the context of literacy with meticulously chosen examples of children's literature, real and very detailed lesson plans, classroom-tested instructional units, and vividly illustrated examples.

Read All About It features a demonstration that reading is a current and dynamic field of study. Lesson Plans are clear, concise examples of how a master teacher systematically creates a lesson plan based on specific books.

Differentiating Instruction provides relevant practical material on ELL, Struggling Readers and Writers, and Gifted and Accelerated Readers and Writers.

All Children Read Charles A. Temple, 2008. Written by one of the most dynamic author teams in the field of Reading and Literacy, the second edition of All Children Read continues to offer K-8 teachers the best practices for nurturing emergent literacy, teaching early literacy concepts, and developing reading and writing in all students, those of varying reading levels and abilities as well as those who are English language learners. The new edition increases its emphasis on the professional aspects of literacy instruction and also includes significant new coverage of fluency and vocabulary, differentiated instruction, and connections to the SIOP and the all-important topics of literacy assessment. Central to the text are the six overriding themes: the troubled reader, family, community, literacy, technology, writing, and reading connections, language diversity, and phonics/phonetic awareness, interwoven throughout, making this book the most contemporary and critical learning aid to come out in the field in years.

Handbook of child psychology William Damon, K. Ann Renninger, Richard M. Lerner, Irving E. Sigel, 2006. This book is part of a 4-volume set that reflects current understanding of child psychology. Focusing on the concerns of a new century and now in its 6th edition, the series is the definitive child psychologist's guide and reference work.
