WHAT IS AN EDITORIAL?

- An editorial is an article or a short essay that presents the newspaper's opinion on an issue whether it is a current event or a social issue.
- Editorials are meant to influence public opinion, promote critical thinking, and sometimes cause people to take action on an issue.

TYPES OF EDITORIAL

- Explanatory - Explains and provides background information on an event or issue. It aims to raise awareness and discuss how the topic is relevant to the reader.
- Critical - It is used to showcase a problem by criticizing related actions or decisions. It focuses on the various causes of a problem and suggests a solution. Its purpose is to get readers to see the problem immediately, not the solution.
- Persuasive - Endorses a specific solution so readers will be compelled to endorse it as well. Editorials of persuasion aims to immediately see the solution, not the problem.
- Praising - A praising editorial shows appreciation for a person or organization based on their involvement in an issue.

PARTS OF AN EDITORIAL

- I. Introduction - Lead with an Objective Explanation of the Issue/Controversy by including five W's and H.
- II. Counterargument - Present Your Opposition First. A critical editorial needs to address the opposing perspective directly.
- III. Refutation - Directly Refute The Opposition's Beliefs. Refuting the counterargument allows you to promote your point of view while still seeming fair.
- IV. Evidence - Give Other, Original Reasons/Analogies. In defense of your position, give reasons from strong to strongest order.
- V. Conclusion - Summarize your point of view and remind the reader why they should care about this issue. Give solutions to the problem or challenge the reader to be informed.

STEPS IN WRITING AN EDITORIAL

1. Choose a Topic

Any topic is acceptable, however, the topic should be a current issue that everyone is already interested in. A good editorial can focus on any topic, as long as you can make a strong case for your opinion and write with your audience in mind.

2. Identify the type of editorial you want to write

There are four different types of editorials. Each has a specific purpose, and knowing your purpose can help you set up your editorial.

3. Form Your Opinion

Start by deciding your stance on the topic you've chosen. You must feel strongly about your viewpoint and be able to give a strong, persuasive argument in favor of it.

4. Find Factual Support

You can convince your readers of your credibility by presenting knowledge of what other outstanding person have to say on the topic.

5. Outline Your Editorial

The outline helps you get your thoughts and opinions in order and keeps you focused on your stance and purpose.

6. Write Your Article

The first step to writing your newspaper editorial is to write a lead that grabs readers' attention. Your opinion on the topic should be addressed right away — if not in the lead, then in the first paragraph. For the conclusion, it should sum up all the information you wrote about. It ties your arguments together and gives readers a recap of all the facts that you presented. Then you should add a few solutions you think would help solve the issue.

7. Proofread

Before submitting your editorial, proofread your own work to make sure you have created a professional, quality piece of writing.
