1. What is one difference between the two houses of Congress?

The Two Houses of Congress

Article I of the Constitution describes the United States Congress. It says that Congress should have two parts. These parts are called the Senate and the House of Representatives. The Senate has equal representation, two senators for each state. The House of Representatives has proportional representation. Each state has one or more representatives, depending on its population.

Each member of Congress is elected by his or her constituents to make laws for the country. A constituent (kuhn•STIHCH•wuhnt) is a person represented by a legislator.

Members of Congress gather in the U.S. Capitol, in Washington, D.C. A Congress lasts for a term, or time period, of two years. Each Congress is numbered.
