- B. Many hippies wanted to live together in communes where they shared everything.
- C. Much of this was a reaction to the 1950s stereotype of the conformist who led a cookiecutter lifestyle .
- D. Musicians of the counterculture wrote protest songs and used rhythms of folk and rock music to express their hopes and fears. One singer and songwriter who was influential during this movement was Bob Dylan .

Summary and Reflection

DIRECTIONS: Summarize the main ideas of this lesson by answering the question below.

What were the youth movement and the counterculture?

The youth movement was a social and political movement led by young people, especially college students, who challenged authority and sought more personal freedom and involvement in decision-making. The counterculture was a broader lifestyle rebellion against traditional American values, emphasizing peace, love, and communal living, and was often associated with music, fashion, and anti-war protests.
