Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004      European Defence Decision-Making Antonio Calcara, 2020-03-02 This book comparatively examines the preferences of four key arms producing states towards European joint armaments programmes The European defence market is characterised by a mixture of inter state competition and European cooperation and this work assesses why countries sometimes decide to cooperate with their partners while in other instances they refrain from doing so In order to shed light on this empirical puzzle the book focuses on state defence industry relations in the four major European arms producers France Germany Italy and the UK The main argument is that the public or private governance of industrial suppliers and market size are the two decisive variables that explain the simultaneous presence of cooperation and competition in European defence procurement Specifically it argues that in public governance ecosystems arms industries are able to capture the state s decision making processes to their own advantage In private governance ecosystems the state is relatively autonomous from defence industry s influence and able to pursue larger macro economic and military benefits Moreover the strategy pursued by governments and defence firms is decisively shaped by market size because of its importance in determining the relative costs and benefits of collaborative arrangements This book will be of much interest to students of EU policy defence studies European politics and International Relations

Multicriteria and Multiagent Decision Making with Applications to Economics and Social Sciences Aldo G. S. Ventre, Antonio Maturo, Šárka Hošková-Mayerová, Janusz Kacprzyk, 2013-12-06 The book provides a comprehensive and timely report on the topic of decision making and decision analysis in economics and the social sciences The various contributions included in the book selected using a peer review process present important studies and research conducted in various countries around the globe The majority of these studies are concerned with the analysis modeling and formalization of the behavior of groups or committees that are in charge of making decisions of social and economic importance Decisions in these contexts have to meet precise coherence standards and achieve a significant degree of sharing consensus and acceptance even in uncertain and fuzzy environments This necessitates the confluence of several research fields such as foundations of social choice and decision making mathematics complexity psychology sociology and economics A large spectrum of problems that may be encountered during decision making and decision analysis in the areas of economics and the social sciences together with a broad range of tools and techniques that may be used to solve those problems are presented in detail in this book making it an ideal reference work for all those interested in analyzing and implementing mathematical tools for application to relevant issues involving the economy and society      Informatics in Control Automation and Robotics Juan Andrade Cetto, Jean-Louis Ferrier, José Miguel Costa Dias Pereira, Joaquim Filipe, 2008-05-30 The present book includes a set of selected papers from the third International Conference on Informatics in Control Automation and Robotics ICINCO 2006 held in Set bal Portugal from 1 to 5 August 2006 sponsored by the Institute for

Systems and Technologies of Information Control and Communication INSTICC The conference was organized in three simultaneous tracks Intelligent Control Systems and Optimization Robotics and Automation and Systems Modeling Signal Processing and Control The book is based on the same structure Although ICINCO 2006 received 309 paper submissions from more than 50 different countries in all continents only 31 were accepted as full papers From those only 23 were selected for inclusion in this book based on the classifications provided by the Program Committee The selected papers also reflect the interdisciplinary nature of the conference The diversity of topics is an important feature of this conference enabling an overall perception of several important scientific and technological trends These high quality standards will be maintained and reinforced at ICINCO 2007 to be held in Angers France and in future editions of this conference Autocar, 2005 Time Out Film Guide, 2007 Daily Graphic Yaw Boadu-Ayeboafah, 2006-05-24 Popular Mechanics, 2005-05 Popular Mechanics inspires instructs and influences readers to help them master the modern world Whether it's practical DIY home improvement tips gadgets and digital technology information on the newest cars or the latest breakthroughs in science PM is the ultimate guide to our high tech lifestyle Predicasts F & S Index International Annual, 1993 Federal Democracies at Work Arthur Benz, Jared Sonnicksen, 2021-04-19 Applying an innovative approach to capture varieties and dynamics of federal democracies this collection examines the conditions mechanisms and practices that make federal democracies work Constitutional Policy in Multilevel Government Arthur Benz, 2016-07-21 The search for a robust balance of power is a continuous challenge for multilevel political system Institutions like parliaments or courts can protect the existing order However necessary adjustments to economic social or international challenges or policies determined to improve ineffective structures or to prevent disintegration require constitutional amendments Whereas constitutional policy appears as essential to maintain balance changing a constitution is rather difficult in multilevel governments Due to the veto power of many actors pursuing divergent interests policies aiming to redistribute power or fiscal resources risk to end in the joint decision trap Hence multilevel government is confronted by a fundamental dilemma Constitutional Policy in Multilevel Government compares processes of constitutional reform in federal and regionalized states Based on a theoretical framework emphasizing the relevance of negotiations in parliamentary intergovernmental and societal arenas it identifies conditions for successful reforms and explains the consequences of failed reforms Moreover it highlights the interplay of reform processes and constitutional evolution as essential to maintaining a robust balance of power The book demonstrates that an appropriate arrangement of multiple arenas of negotiation including executives members of parliament and civil society organizations and sequential order of reform processes proves fundamental to prevent federal or regionalized governments from becoming either instable or ending with rigid constitutions Transformations in Governance is a major new academic book series from Oxford University Press It is designed to accommodate the impressive growth of research in comparative politics international relations public policy federalism

environmental and urban studies concerned with the dispersion of authority from central states up to supranational institutions down to subnational governments and side ways to public private networks It brings together work that significantly advances our understanding of the organization causes and consequences of multilevel and complex governance The series is selective containing annually a small number of books of exceptionally high quality by leading and emerging scholars The series targets mainly single authored or co authored work but it is pluralistic in terms of disciplinary specialization research design method and geographical scope Case studies as well as comparative studies historical as well as contemporary studies and studies with a national regional or international focus are all central to its aims Authors use qualitative quantitative formal modeling or mixed methods A trade mark of the books is that they combine scholarly rigour with readable prose and an attractive production style The series is edited by Liesbet Hooghe and Gary Marks of the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill and the VU Amsterdam and Walter Mattli of the University of Oxford
