The Meal That Reconnects Mary E. McGann, 2020-03-03 2021 Catholic Media Association Award first place award in Catholic Social Teaching In The Meal That Reconnects Dr Mary McGann RSCJ invites readers to a more profound appreciation of the sacredness of eating the planetary interdependence that food and the sharing of food entails and the destructiveness of the industrial food system that is supplying food to tables globally She presents the food crisis as a spiritual crisis a call to rediscover the theological ecological and spiritual significance of eating and to probe its challenge to Christian eucharistic practice Drawing on the origins of Eucharist in Jesus s meal fellowship and the worship of early Christians McGann invites communities to reclaim the foundational meal character of eucharistic celebration while offering pertinent strategies for this renewal

The Story of Food in the Human Past Robyn E. Cutright, 2021-01-26 A sweeping overview of how and what humans have eaten in their long history as a species The Story of Food in the Human Past How What We Ate Made Us Who We Are uses case studies from recent archaeological research to tell the story of food in human prehistory Beginning with the earliest members of our genus Robyn E Cutright investigates the role of food in shaping who we are as humans during the emergence of modern Homo sapiens and through major transitions in human prehistory such as the development of agriculture and the emergence of complex societies This fascinating study begins with a discussion of how food shaped humans in evolutionary terms by examining what makes human eating unique the use of fire to cook and the origins of cuisine as culture and adaptation through the example of Neandertals The second part of the book describes how cuisine was reshaped when humans domesticated plants and animals and examines how food expressed ancient social structures and identities such as gender class and ethnicity Cutright shows how food took on special meaning in feasts and religious rituals and also pays attention to the daily preparation and consumption of food as central to human society Cutright synthesizes recent paleoanthropological and archaeological research on ancient diet and cuisine and complements her research on daily diet culinary practice and special purpose mortuary and celebratory meals in the Andes with comparative case studies from around the world to offer readers a holistic view of what humans ate in the past and what that reveals about who we are
