François Cooren, Alain Létourneau, 2012-11-23 This edited volume proposes key contributions addressing the connections between two important themes dialogue and representation These connections were approached or interpreted in three possible ways 1 Dialogue as representation 2 Normative perspectives on dialogue representation issues and 3 Representations of dialogue The first interpretation Dialogue as representation consists of exploring dialogue as an activity where many things beings or voices can be made present whether we think in terms of ideologies cultures situations collectives roles etc The second interpretation Normative perspectives on dialogue representation issues leads scholars to explore questions of normativity which are often associated with the notion of dialogue when conceived as a morally stronger form of conversation Finally the third interpretation Representations of dialogue invites us to address methodological questions related to the representation of this type of conversation Echoing Bakhtin contributors were invited to explore the polyphonic heteroglot or dialogic character of any text discourse or interaction Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum, 1892 ... The Forerunners of Feminism in French Literature of the Renaissance... Lula McDowell Richardson, 1929 French Prose in 2000, 2021-10-18 French Prose in 2000 stems in some important measure from work presented in September 1998 at the International Colloquium on French and Francophone Literature in the 1990 s held at Dalhousie University A good number of papers given at that time and since revisited in the light of exchanges join here certain others specifically written for the purposes of this book Together they constitute a wide ranging and modally varied interrogation of the current state of French and francophone prose writing its multifaceted manners its richly divergent fascinations its many theoretical or philosophical groundings The book thus ceaselessly moves its attention from fictional biography to the roman noir from the writing of Glissant and Chamoiseau to that of the tonnants voyageurs from the powerful discourse of women such as Chawaf or Cond Ernaux or Germain Sallenave or Kristeva to that of writers as diverse in their modes as Le Cl zio and Quignard Duras and Renaud Camus All chapters focus however in near exclusive measure on the prose production of the last ten or twelve years
