Soft CLIL and English Language Teaching Makoto Ikeda, Shinichi Izumi, Yoshinori Watanabe, Richard Pinner, Matthew Davis, 2021-08-24 Content and Language Integrated Learning CLIL is a transformative and powerful approach to language education and has had a significant impact on educational pedagogy in recent years Despite burgeoning literature on the efficacy and implementation of CLIL there remains a gap between CLIL and English Language Teaching ELT Many practitioners wonder how they can do CLIL if their main classes are focused on English as a Foreign Language EFL This volume addresses these concerns by examining the experiences of various CLIL practitioners in the EFL context of Japan Chapters outline the CLIL methodology the differences in hard CLIL subject led and soft CLIL language oriented before focusing on the EFL interpretations of soft CLIL Although the distinction of hard CLIL and soft CLIL has been mentioned in several publications this is the first book length exploration of this issue featuring chapters examining expectations challenges material support implementation and even motivation in CLIL classrooms All of this culminates in a review of the potential and future of CLIL in EFL contexts paving the way for more widespread and well informed implementation of CLIL all over the world

Teacher Training for English-Medium Instruction in Higher Education Sánchez-Pérez, Maria del Mar,2020-02-07 English medium instruction EMI has become a pervasive teaching model in recent higher education The implementation of EMI programs requires changes in university teaching methods since most lecturers need to adapt their contents and the way they teach them to successfully work in foreign language environments The rapid proliferation of such programs has resulted in concern among teaching staff who have felt pushed towards teaching their subject content through a non native language with little or no previous training As a result many recent studies have highlighted the importance and urgency to train teaching staff in terms of language proficiency and the appropriate teaching methods techniques and strategies to be applied in EMI lessons

Teacher Training for English Medium Instruction in Higher Education is an academic research publication that provides comprehensive research on effective approaches and experiences in teacher training for EMI at universities both in terms of language skills and teaching methodologies and that analyzes the design and development of comprehensive teacher training programs that successfully engage these EMI programs It has profound implications for the development of the international profile of higher education institutions as it provides information on how to train highly qualified lecturers to successfully teach students from different nationalities Featuring a wide range of topics such as assessment curriculum design and learning styles this book is ideal for pre and in service teachers language specialists content specialists administrators deans higher education faculty researchers practitioners curriculum designers policymakers academicians and students
