Graduation Of Mku:

Caste and Equality Stephanie Stocker,2017-05-15 Caste hierarchy has frequently been singled out as the overriding principle of Indian society This book examines its significance among the highly educated middle class in the Tamil town of Madurai As part of their distinctive status as educated persons young graduates form egalitarian constellations by ostensibly subverting the boundaries inscribed by caste hierarchy Stephanie Stocker explores how these friendships are maintained in wider social contexts finding that the actors engage in supportive networks throughout career and marriage events Instead of assuming these relationships to be of an entirely different alternative category however Stocker s study proposes a dynamic character of friendship which in fact remains in conjunction with Indian values of hierarchy

Driving the Samburu Bride Diane C. Perlov,2020-11-11 Driving the Samburu Bride is a vivid account of a young anthropologist working in northern Kenya revealing insights into the Samburu culture and the culture of doing anthropology With engaging irony and a storyteller s gift the author takes the reader through the frustrating productive and occasionally euphoric stages of fieldwork Along the way Perlov connects theory and practice and recounts the evolution of her Samburu friendships forged over decades including the discovery of her unwitting impact on Samburu girls

Proceedings of the Royal Geographical Society and Monthly Record of Geography Royal Geographical Society (Great Britain),1891 Women's Education in the Third World David H. Kelly,Gail P. Kelly,2017-05-18 Originally published in 1989 This detailed bibliography focuses on women s education in the developing nations of Asia Africa Latin America and the Caribbean and the Middle East It contains annotations for about 1200 published works in English French Spanish Portuguese and German The entries include extensive research journal monograph and book literature items including chapters hidden in books that don t have women or education as their main theme The citations are organised thematically but with geographic divisions within each of the 15 sections and each entry has a decently detailed summary It is prefaced by a useful article written by Gail Kelly on the directions in research at the time and the development of women centric approaches
