STORY ELEMENTS: PASSAGE #1

Name: _____ Date: _____

Dale stood up at the Screamer, the tallest water slide in the state. He followed it with his eyes as it corkscrewed downward. His eyes arrived at the pool below just as his friend Jayden emerged from the slide with a scream.

Jayden splashed over to Dale and the rest of their friends with a huge grin. He put his hands on Dale's shoulders and screamed, "ABSOLUTELY INCREDIBLE!" Dale could feel the rage in his stomach. He and his friends had been coming to Splash Village every summer for years, but now Dale was the only one of them who had never braved the Screamer. His friends weren't into peer pressure, but Dale was starting to put pressure on himself. He wanted to see himself as a courageous person, but he couldn't do that if he was afraid to go down a silly slide. He made up his mind to do it. Dale nodded to his friends and strode off to the Screamer as they cheered him on.

It was early in the season and late in the day, so there was no line. Dale strode up the steep stairs, and he kept his sense of purpose until he reached the top. That's when he froze. He was thankful that he was out of sight of his friends. He couldn't move. He was in a panic. It didn't help that he was so high up. From up there, he could see planes heading for the airport. His mom was a pilot, and thinking of her made him suddenly feel ridiculous. If she can land a plane, I can go down a silly slide, he thought.

Before he could talk himself out of it, Dale hopped into the tube, and he was off on the ride of his life.
