Geography Memorandum 2014 November:

Origination Andy Pike, 2015-03-24 Origination The Geographies of Brands and Branding offers innovative theoretical and conceptual frameworks relating to the ways that actors create meaning and value in commodity brands and branding through processes of geographical association Provides innovative conceptualization and theorization to facilitate an understanding of the geographical dimensions of brands and branding Challenges current interpretations of brands as vehicles of homogenization in globalization Establishes the theoretical and conceptual foundations of a more geographically sensitive approach through rigorous empirical examination of the under researched geographical differentiation of commodity brands and branding Presents innovative new research and analysis of the socio spatial biographies of the Newcastle Brown Ale Burberry and Apple brands Forges strong new connections between political and cultural economy approaches within geography Provides a distinctive and incisive conceptual and theoretical framework capable of engaging other branded commodities and their branding in other times and places The Meritocracy Trap Daniel Markovits, 2020-09-08 A revolutionary new argument from eminent Yale Law professor Daniel Markovits attacking the false promise of meritocracy It is an axiom of American life that advantage should be earned through ability and effort Even as the country divides itself at every turn the meritocratic ideal that social and economic rewards should follow achievement rather than breeding reigns supreme Both Democrats and Republicans insistently repeat meritocratic notions Meritocracy cuts to the heart of who we are It sustains the American dream But what if both up and down the social ladder meritocracy is a sham Today meritocracy has become exactly what it was conceived to resist a mechanism for the concentration and dynastic transmission of wealth and privilege across generations Upward mobility has become a fantasy and the embattled middle classes are now more likely to sink into the working poor than to rise into the professional elite At the same time meritocracy now ensnares even those who manage to claw their way to the top requiring rich adults to work with crushing intensity exploiting their expensive educations in order to extract a return All this is not the result of deviations or retreats from meritocracy but rather stems directly from meritocracy's successes This is the radical argument that Daniel Markovits prosecutes with rare force Markovits is well placed to expose the sham of meritocracy Having spent his life at elite universities he knows from the inside the corrosive system we are trapped within Markovits also knows that if we understand that meritocratic inequality produces near universal harm we can cure it When The Meritocracy Trap reveals the inner workings of the meritocratic machine it also illuminates the first steps outward towards a new world that might once again afford dignity and prosperity to the American people Geopolitics and Development Marcus Power, 2019-01-25 Geopolitics and Development examines the historical emergence of development as a form of governmentality from the end of empire to the Cold War and the War on Terror It illustrates the various ways in which the meanings and relations of development as a discourse an apparatus and an aspiration have been geopolitically imagined and enframed The book traces some of the multiple historical associations between development and diplomacy and seeks to underline the centrality of questions of territory security statehood and sovereignty to the pursuit of development along with its enrolment in various bordering practices In making a case for greater attention to the evolving nexus between geopolitics and development and with particular reference to Africa the book explores the historical and contemporary geopolitics of foreign aid the interconnections between development and counterinsurgency the role of the state and social movements in re imagining development the rise of re emerging donors like China India and Brazil and the growing significance of South South flows of investment trade and development cooperation Drawing on post colonial and postdevelopment approaches and on some of the author s own original empirical research this is an essential critical and interdisciplinary analysis of the complex and dynamic political geographies of global development Primarily intended for scholars and post graduate students in development studies human geography African studies and international relations this book provides an engaging invaluable and up to date resource for making sense of the complex entanglement between geopolitics and development past and present
