Exclusion and Inclusion in International Migration: Power, Resistance and Identity Armağan Teke Lloyd, 2019-04-30 People on the move face new barriers in a globalizing world Some of these barriers are related with the rise of an increasingly security oriented approach towards international migrants Notwithstanding the forces of globalization states have maintained their monopoly power over whom to admit and whom to deny within their borders In other words they remain the sovereign authority regulating the entry and exit of people However in recent years a number of states have singled out international immigration as the greatest political and social threat to their cultural and national security The securitization of immigration is founded upon the premise that the international movement of people represents an exceptional risk for the survival of the nation and this is often associated with terrorism instability and criminality The securitization of immigration is also based on the idea that the traditional authority vested in states to regulate immigration is somehow insufficient and needs to be enhanced These assumptions correspond with a real policy shift in some countries such as the United States where the government is planning to spend approximately 23 Billion Dollars on border security and immigration enforcement in 2019 alone This edited volume is an exploration of the global landscapes inhabited by refugees and labour migrants although the focus is largely on the former Despite the fact that most of the empirical studies are drawn from within Europe the book also includes research on Nepal Australia the Middle East and Japan in order to reveal the truly global dimensions of migration and the regimes governing this

Background Notes on Sustainable, Productive and Resilient Agro-Food Systems: Value chains, human capital, and the 2030 Agenda Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development, 2019-07-18 Agricultural production more than tripled between 1960 and 2015 owing in part to productivity enhancing technologies and a significant expansion in the use of land water and other natural resources for agricultural purposes Today more than ever agriculture faces multiple and complex challenges It has to provide sufficient safe and nutritious food to meet booming demand by a growing and progressively more prosperous population and ensure food security for all Prepared to support the G20 Presidency of Japan and the G20 Agriculture Deputies these three background notes provide an overview on the following interlinked issues i the policy challenges for strengthening the participation of farmers into modern value chains and promoting value addition inclusion sustainability and rural economic growth ii the need for a transformation in the skillset of agricultural workers and a renewed focus on human capital development in agriculture and iii the contribution of agriculture to the realization of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development The Middle and Upper Paleolithic Archeology of the Levant and Beyond Yoshihiro Nishiaki, Takeru Akazawa, 2017-12-06 This volume is a compilation of results from sessions of the Second International Conference on the Replacement of Neanderthals by Modern Humans which took place between November 30 and December 6 2014 in Hokkaido Japan Similar to the first conference held in 2012 in Tokyo the 2014 conference RNMH2014 aimed to compile the results of the latest multidisciplinary approaches investigating the issues surrounding the replacement of Neanderthals by modern humans The results of the sessions supplemented by off site contributions center on the archeology of the Middle and Upper Paleolithic of the Levant and beyond The first part of this volume presents recent findings from the Levant while the second part focuses on the neighboring regions namely the Caucasus the Zagros and South Asia The 13 chapters in this volume highlight the distinct nature of the cultural occurrences during the Middle and Upper Paleolithic periods of the Levant displaying a continuous development as well as a combination of lithic traditions that may have originated in different regions This syncretism which is an unusual occurrence in the regions discussed in this volume reinforces the importance of the Levant as a region for interpreting the RNMH phenomenon in West Asia Russia and the New World Disorder Bobo Lo,2015-08-17 The Russian annexation of Crimea was one of the great strategic shocks of the past twenty five years For many in the West Moscow s actions in early 2014 marked the end of illusions about cooperation and the return to geopolitical and ideological confrontation Russia for so long a peripheral presence had become the central actor in a new global drama In this groundbreaking book renowned scholar Bobo Lo analyzes the broader context of the crisis by examining the interplay between Russian foreign policy and an increasingly anarchic international environment He argues that Moscow s approach to regional and global affairs reflects the tension between two very different worlds the perceptual and the actual The Kremlin highlights the decline of the West a resurgent Russia and the emergence of a new multipolar order But this idealized view is contradicted by a world disorder that challenges core assumptions about the dominance of great powers and the utility of military might Its lesson is that only those states that embrace change will prosper in the twenty first century A Russia able to redefine itself as a modern power would exert a critical influence in many areas of international politics But a Russia that rests on an outdated sense of entitlement may end up instead as one of the principal casualties of global transformation
