A History of Civilization in 50 Disasters Gale Eaton, 2016-01-04 2016 IBPA Benjamin Franklin Silver Award Winner
The earth shakes and cracks open Volcanoes erupt Continents freeze bake and flood Droughts parch the land Wildfires and hundred year storms consume anything in their paths Invisible clouds of disease and pestilence probe for victims Tidal waves sweep ashore from the vast sea The natural world is a dangerous place but one species has evolved a unique defense against the hazards civilization Civilization rearranges nature for human convenience Clothes and houses keep us warm agriculture feeds us medicine fights our diseases It all works most of the time But key resources lie in the most hazardous places so we choose to live on river flood plains on the slopes of volcanoes at the edge of the sea above seismic faults We pack ourselves into cities Petri dishes for germs Civilization thrives on the edge of disaster And what happens when natural forces meet molasses holding tanks insecticides deepwater oil rigs nuclear power plants We learn the hard way how to avoid the last disaster and maybe how to create the next one What we don't know can indeed hurt us This book's white knuckled journey from antiquity to the present leads us to wonder at times how humankind has survived And yet as Author Gale Eaton makes clear civilization has advanced not just in spite of disasters but in part because of them Hats off to human resilience ingenuity and perseverance They've carried us this far may they continue to do so into our ever hazardous future The History in 50 series explores history by telling thematically linked stories Each book includes 50 illustrated narrative accounts of people and events some well known others often overlooked that together build a rich connect the dots mosaic and challenge conventional assumptions about how history unfolds Dedicated to the premise that history is the greatest story ever told Includes a mix of greatest hits with quirky surprising provocative accounts Challenges readers to think and engage Includes a glossary of technical terms sources by chapter teaching resources as jumping off points for student research and endnotes Fountas Pinnell Level Z

Dislocating the Orient Daniel Foliard, 2017-04-13 While the twentieth century's conflicting visions and exploitation of the Middle East are well documented the origins of the concept of the Middle East itself have been largely ignored With Dislocating the Orient Daniel Foliard tells the story of how the land was brought into being exploring how maps knowledge and blind ignorance all participated in the construction of this imagined region Foliard vividly illustrates how the British first defined the Middle East as a geopolitical and cartographic region in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries through their imperial maps Until then the region had never been clearly distinguished from the East or the Orient In the course of their colonial activities however the British began to conceive of the Middle East as a separate and distinct part of the world with consequences that continue to be felt today As they reimagined boundaries the British produced disputed and finally dramatically transformed the geography of the area both culturally and physically over the course of their colonial era Using a wide variety of primary texts and historical maps to show how the idea of the Middle East came into being Dislocating the Orient will interest historians of the Middle East the British empire cultural geography and cartography New Directions in South African Tourism Geographies Jayne M. Rogerson, Gustav Visser, 2019-09-26

This book provides an overview of innovative and new directions being chartered in South African tourism geographies. Within the context of global change the volume explores different facets and different geographies of tourism. Key themes under scrutiny include the sharing economy, the changing accommodation service sector, touring, poverty tourism and innovation, tourism and climate change, threats to sustainability, inclusive tourism and a number of studies which challenge the present mindedness of much tourism geographical scholarship. The 18 chapters range across urban and rural landscapes in South Africa with sectoral studies which include adventure tourism, coastal tourism, cruise tourism, nature based tourism, sports tourism and wine tourism. Finally the volume raises a number of policy and planning issues in the global South in particular relating to sustainability, local economic development and poverty reduction. Outlining the impact of tourism expansion in South Africa and suggesting future research directions, this stimulating book is a valuable resource for geographers as well as researchers and students in the field of tourism studies.

Understanding Society Carlo Morelli, Paul Seaman, 2022-03-14
This poignant book examines poverty, wealth and inequality in the UK and provides insight into its history, its present day forms and possible routes to its eradication. The book demonstrates how poverty, wealth and inequality are constructed in the UK, noting that it is not an innate part of the human experience but a phenomenon which is constructed by economic and social circumstances. Using work ranging from Malthus' interrogation of the natural right of the poor to full support in society to more contemporary approaches including Thomas Picketty's Capitalism in the Twenty First Century, the authors examine various forms of poverty, wealth and inequality in the UK using the UK Household Longitudinal Study Understanding Society dataset to ground their findings in quantitative evidence. The book concludes with an assessment of what is required to potentially end poverty in the UK and a call to apply evidence based research to the reshaping of social policy in the UK. This book is an excellent resource for students, policy makers and lecturers seeking a greater understanding of poverty, wealth and inequality in the UK. It will be of particular interest to those working in or studying the fields of human geography, economics and social policy.

Global Rentier Capitalism Balihar Sanghera, 2024-09-16
Recent work on rent and rentierism has offered a distinctive and fresh approach to understanding and explaining contemporary capitalism. Drawing on political economy, economics, geography and sociology, this research has brought together distinct theoretical traditions in original and fertile ways to reshape the study of issues related to class, political economic change and environmental challenges. This book critically engages with these theoretical resources to analyse and evaluate economies in the Global North and South. It offers historical, theoretical and empirical accounts of rentierism, making important cross disciplinary and global connections. Its four parts address global rentier capitalism under the headings of historical lessons, theoretical developments and empirical studies of rentierism in the Global North and South. It will be the first book of its kind to offer a global account of rentier capitalism. It will be of immense interest to readers in
