

THE GREAT GATSBY JOURNAL PROMPTS

Use these journal prompts as you read through The Great Gatsby, by F. Scott Fitzgerald. These can be warm-up, bell-ringers, exit tickets, discussion questions, etc.

Before Chapter 1

- What do you know about the Modernism period of American Literature? What do you know about the 1920s in the US?

Chapter 1

- Based on the opening paragraph of the novel, what is Nick's attitude or tone towards the other characters?
- Choose one of the characters that we met in Chapter 1. What are they like? How can you tell?
- How does Nick describe East Egg and West Egg? What are the differences?

Chapter 2

- Based on what you've read so far, what is Fitzgerald's attitude towards the Roaring 20s? How can you tell?

Chapter 3

- What are the different settings of the novel so far? How is the party at Gatsby's house different from the gathering at Tom and Daisy's?
- Think about the first few chapters. Why do you think Fitzgerald waited so long to truly introduce Gatsby? What effect does this have on the reader?

Chapter 4

- Based on your reading so far, what do you think the theme of this story is?
- How are the attitudes of the characters from East and West Egg different? What is the correlation between those who live in West Egg and those who grew up out west?

Chapter 5

- What potential theme did you identify last week? What is an additional lesson that we can learn from this story?

Chapter 6

- Think about the way that Fitzgerald reveals information about Gatsby throughout the novel. How does this impact the reader's experience or the flow of the novel?

Chapter 7

- What kind of character development has Gatsby experienced throughout the novel? Is this positive or negative development?
- What is motivating Tom throughout the novel? Does his motivation justify his actions?

Resources in Education, 1990-02. When Text Meets Text Barbara King-Shaver, 2005. It's not enough for students to just understand a text. In order for students to achieve academic excellence and succeed in today's society, they must also be able to exercise critical awareness over what they read. But how do you cultivate comprehension and help kids sharpen their analytical skills? The answer, writes Barbara King-Shaver, lies in thinking outside the book by studying texts in tandem. In When Text Meets Text, King-Shaver lays out rationales and strategies for using an approach called intertextuality, where a reading of carefully paired texts increases students' grasp of content while honing their command of crucial critical tools. Making connections among texts, students delve deeper into each by observing similarities and differences in literary characteristics such as syntax, plot, character, and structure, propelling them toward greater meaning-making. King-Shaver presents the research supporting intertextual instruction techniques for adding it to your curriculum, suggestions for a wide array of books to teach together, and best of all, practical ideas for units of study covering key aspects of teaching literature including genre theme author archetypes Find an exciting new way to build literature connections in your classroom as you extend the comprehension abilities of your students Read Barbara King Shaver's When Text Meets Text and find out why two texts are better than one The Great Gatsby - Literature Kit Gr. 9-12 Chad Ibbotson, 2016-01-01 Experience the rise and fall of mankind through a series of events that ultimately lead to a tragic end Encourage students to make connections between the novel and real life through discussion questions and writing prompts Students brainstorm the different themes that may be presented prior to reading the novel Use evidence from the text to explain how Nick describes Myrtle's sister Complete sentences from the story with their missing vocabulary words Research the real life scandal of the 1919 World Series touched on in the novel and explain the social and cultural impacts this event had in the United States Pick up Nick's story five years after the events in the novel and discuss where Nick would be and what he would be doing Aligned to your State Standards and written to Bloom's Taxonomy additional crossword word search comprehension quiz and answer key are also included About the Novel The Great Gatsby written by F. Scott Fitzgerald is a story about a man prospering from the Jazz Age and his inevitable downfall Told through the eyes of Nick Carraway we are introduced to his mysterious neighbor Jay Gatsby who spends every evening throwing lavish parties One such night Nick is extended an invitation There we learn of Gatsby's intention of using Nick to facilitate a reunion between Gatsby and his lost love Daisy Buchanan Daisy who lives across the lake in the house with the green light at the end of the dock also happens to be Nick's cousin Daisy and Gatsby's reunion leads to a tragic love affair that changes the lives of each character forever

Standards in Practice, Grades 9-12 Peter Smagorinsky, 1996 This book presents five composites of teachers and students in action to portray and elaborate on the English Language Arts standards developed by the National Council of Teachers of English and the International Reading Association The book demonstrates that teaching and learning are not generic homogeneous activities that transcend time space and culture Each chapter long narrative in the book follows a classroom community through a unit of study geared to that community's unique social and cultural context with its own distinct set of values and with learners who bring these values to class The book thus reveals the situatedness of both teaching and learning It helps illustrate how every classroom teacher can adapt standards into a learner centered pedagogy that capitalizes on students strengths Contains a glossary Each chapter contains resources NKA THE Journal, 1992
