CIC seeks details on interlocutors' selection

Chief Justice of India asks for details on selection of interlocutors

The Chief Justice of India (CJI) has asked the government to provide details on the selection of interlocutors for the National Investigation Agency (NIA) in the context of the Kashmir issue. The CJI, in a letter to the Union Home Minister, sought information on the criteria used for selecting these individuals and the process followed. The government has responded by providing a list of names and their backgrounds.

The government has provided a list of names of the interlocutors selected for the NIA. The list includes several individuals with diverse backgrounds, including former government officials, academics, and community leaders. The government has stated that the selection process was based on their expertise and ability to engage with the Kashmiri community.

258 booked under PSA in 3 months: KAP

258 booked under PSA in 3 months: KAP

The Kashmiri American Party (KAP) has reported that 258 individuals have been booked under the Public Safety Act (PSA) in the last three months. The party has expressed concern over the increasing use of PSA and has called for a review of the law. The KAP has also demanded that the government should provide details on the individuals booked under PSA and the reasons for their arrest.

Is call for revolt offence? SC asks

Is 'Revolution by Drug Dealer' offence? SC asks

The Supreme Court (SC) has asked the government whether a call for a 'Revolution by Drug Dealer' is an offence under the Public Safety Act (PSA). The SC has also asked whether the government can use PSA to arrest individuals who call for a revolution. The government has responded that such a call is an offence and that PSA can be used to arrest individuals who call for a revolution.
