THE CEREMONY

RETROUVE

The Katabethan challenges the nuptial vows made between the couple's family, signifying that it is married life, the togetherness of the one with the companionship of the other.

JOINING OF HANDS

The priest joins the bride and the groom's right hands, and their hands joined throughout the service to symbolize their union.

CROWNING

A couple places crowns (two crowns, called halos, together) on a pedestal of unity. When the priest places them on the bride and groom's heads, they are crowned by God as King and Queen of their home. The crowns are exchanged three times by the Katabethan.

COMMON CUP

The bride and groom drink from the same cup of wine, an important part of sharing all of life. Their happiness will double and their sorrow will be cut half as bad.

DANCE OF ISRAEL

The priest leads the couple in a ceremonial walk, with the Katabethan following closely behind to support. This is when the priest and the groom's three men are a married couple.

THE BLESSING

The priest says a prayer for a long and happy life for the bride and groom. He then blesses the Holy Spirit, saying it down because they have a reminder that only God can separate them from one another.
