DAVID BROWN, D.D., 1878 A Commentary on the Holy Scriptures: Samuel Johann Peter Lange, 1899 Romans Robert Jewett, Roy David Kotansky, 2007 Deeply conversant in the full range of questions and interpretations of the letter Jewett's commentary explores the crucial and controverted passages that have always animated studies of Romans Jewett also incorporates the exciting new insights from archaeology of the city of Rome social history of early Christianity social scientific work on early Christianity and the interpretation and reception of Paul's letter through the ages Breaking free from abstract approaches that defend traditional theologies Jewett shows that the entire letter aims to elicit support for Paul's forthcoming mission to the barbarians in Spain. His work specifically focuses on Paul's missionary plans and how they figure in the letter on Paul's critical and constructive tack with the Roman community and finally and especially on how Paul's letter reframes the entire system of honor and shame as it informed life in the Roman Empire at the time. The latter remains a pertinent message today. The first commentary to interpret Romans within the imperial context as well as in the light of the situation in Spain, this landmark commentary twenty-five years in the making will set the standard for interpretation of Romans for the next generation.

Romans (Understanding the Bible Commentary Series) James R. Edwards, 2011-08-01

Martin Luther called Romans the clearest gospel of all. But centuries of interpretive tradition and dogma have muddied the waters. Edwards's careful exposition pays attention to literary detail and historical context to clarify the Epistle's significance for its original readers and for the church today. The NIBC format section by section exposition of the NIV, all Greek transliterated and separate textual and technical notes make this commentary ideal for laypeople and pastors.
