The first major publication devoted to weaver and designer Dorothy Liebes reinstating her as one of the most influential American designers of the twentieth century At the time of her death Dorothy Liebes 1897 1972 was called the greatest modern weaver and the mother of the twentieth century palette As a weaver she developed a distinctive combination of unusual materials lavish textures and brilliant colors that came to be known as the Liebes Look Yet despite her prolific career and recognition during her lifetime Liebes is today considerably less well known than the men with whom she often collaborated including Frank Lloyd Wright Henry Dreyfuss and Edward Durrell Stone Her legacy also suffered due to the inability of the black and white photography of the period to represent her richly colored and textured works Extensively researched and illustrated with full color accurate reproductions this important publication examines Liebes s widespread impact on twentieth century design Essays explore major milestones of her career including her close collaborations with major interior designers and architects to create custom textiles the innovative and experimental design studio where she designers including Clare Potter and Bonnie Cashin Ultimately this book reinstates Liebes at the pinnacle of modern textile
