

4(a) There are specific choices in this extract for performers.

(i) You are going to play Herrick. Explain two ways you would use physical skills to play this character in this extract.

Two ways of using physical skills, both of which are supported by reasons to show understanding of the context and the character of Herrick at this moment in the play.

(b) There are specific choices in this extract for a director.

(i) As a director, discuss how you would use one of the production elements below to bring this extract to life for your audience.

You should make reference to the context in which the text was created and performed.

Choose one of the following:

- costume
- scaping
- props/stage furniture.

Clear connection to an understanding of the context of the play – looking to costume the characters to reflect the time period of the events and making specific reference to the extract in the opening line.

(2)

Evidence of a personal response.

Reasons for the costume decisions in relation to the play as a whole and the characters' situation at this moment in the extract.

Use of descriptors – 'dirty', 'ragged', 'horrible' - to show understanding of visuals for the audience who are also mentioned here.

Connection to Herrick and clear reference to his status in relation to other characters in this extract and in the play as a whole. This is consistent with previous costume decisions.

Connects to the specific context with reference to the cloak and the costume being 'a bit dishevelled'. Shows understanding of the character and that he has been drinking. Evidence of the use of the costume and examples are developed and supported by reasons.
