To Whom It May Concern:

It gives me great pleasure to recommend _____ for employment. He has been working under my supervision in our executive customer service department for six months.

_____ was initially hired two years ago as an entry-level customer service representative in our call center, where he handled incoming calls from users having questions about our array of cleaning products. Within a few weeks, it became obviously that _____'s natural skills set him apart from his peers, and he was promoted.

Six months ago, when I was seeking to fill a position in the executive customer service department, _____'s immediate supervisor recommended him. It was their loss, as I have never been more pleased with a hire.

_____ gives new meaning to the term "multitasking." He can follow up on several issues at once, all the while displaying admirable patience and people skills. He has also
