Geography Paper One 2014 December

Thomas Griffiths

Geography Paper One 2014 December:

The European Union and the Geopolitics of the Arctic Andreas Raspotnik, 2018-01-26 The Arctic is a region that has seen exponential growth as a space of geopolitical interest over the past decade This insightful book is the first to analyse the European Union's Arctic policy endeavours of the early 21st Century from a critical geopolitical perspective

Time for mapping Sybille Lammes, Chris Perkins, Alex Gekker, Sam Hind, Clancy Wilmott, Daniel Evans, 2018-06-29 Maps take place in time as well as representing space The Google map on your smartphone appears to fix the world serving as a practical spatial tool but in practice is deployed in ways that draw attention to memories rhythm synchronicity sequence and duration This interdisciplinary collection focuses on how these temporal aspects of mapping might be understood at a time when mapping technologies have been profoundly changed by digital developments It contrasts different aspects of this temporality bringing together experts from critical cartography media studies and science and technology studies Together the chapters offer a unique interdisciplinary focus revealing the complex and social ways in which time is wrapped up with digital technologies and revealed in everyday mapping tasks from navigating across cities to serving as scientific groundings for news stories from managing smart cities to visual art practice It brings time back into the map An electronic edition of this book is freely available under a Creative Commons CC BY NC ND licence

Cross-Border Cooperation as Conflict Transformation Maria-Adriana Deiana, Milena Komarova, Cathal McCall, 2022-02-27 Has European integration helped to build peace in Europe and its neighbourhood The book addresses this question through theoretically and empirically informed case studies that explore the successes of and the challenges to EU cross border cooperation as a tool for conflict transformation Conceptually the contributors link the question of transforming conflict to changing understandings of borders and bordering Empirically the contributions represent case studies of practices and discourses of EU sponsored cross border cooperation and challenges to it The case studies encompass the multiple geographical perspectives of the EU internal boundaries its sometimes disputed external borders and borders involving third countries From a thematic point of view the collection focuses on the intersection of two levels at which bordering processes unfold and are enacted the level of governance devolution and international intervention and that of grass roots or civil society efforts including cultural cooperation and artistic production The collection thus offers a kaleidoscopic view of border politics and conflict that zooms in and out of the EU frontiers and their geopolitics of peacebuilding security and cooperation The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Geopolitics

The Data Revolution Rob Kitchin, 2021-09-22 Our world is becoming ever more data driven transforming how business is conducted governance enacted and knowledge produced Yet the nature of data and the scope and implications of the changes taking place are not always clear The Data Revolution is a must read for anyone interested in why data have become so important in the contemporary era Thoroughly updated including ten new chapters the book provides an accessible and comprehensive introduction to thinking conceptually about the nature of data
