

Logic Puzzle 5

Meeting the People

Yesterday, Ava Goatter, Junior Minister at the Department of Communications visited a rural area of the East of England and spoke about the latest government policies to four different groups of concerned citizens at different locations. From the clues given below, can you work out the village and location where Ava spoke at each of the listed time, and say to which group of people she spoke?

Clues:

1. At the historic Tithe Barn, Ava spoke to a group of parents worried about their children's education.
2. The unruly group of farmers, who were so angry about the latest changes in agricultural policy that they threw tomatoes at poor Ava, were in the tiny village of Luce End, which has no school.
3. Two hours after what turned out to be a rather ill tempered confrontation with a group of parish councilors, Ava addressed another group of people at the Village Hall in Touchwood.
4. Ava's last speech of the day was, appropriately, in Farewell; her midday talk wasn't given in Runndown.
