Eddy,2008-04-04 This volume explores how key aspects of No Child Left Behind NCLB have transformed the landscape of educational evaluation and ultimately how this process is redefining what evaluation is within the educational evaluation community In their chapters the authors examine case studies critical commentaries and technical information related to the nexus between evaluation and NCLB The volume is intended to stimulate conversation around fundamental issues in the discipline of evaluation including blurring the lines among research evaluation and assessment prioritizing summative evaluations over formative using questions to drive research design rather than the reverse balancing accountability requirements with other stakeholder needs exploring the role of evaluation capacity building in an institutional setting understanding the availability and appropriate use of assessment data and defining learning outcomes that are based on standardized test scores alone Evaluative activities have become integrated into the fabric of NCLB primarily through two core aspects of the legislation responding to accountability systems and implementing scientifically based research One plausible consequence of this close integration is that the purpose design and practice of evaluation may actually be transformed by this legislation This volume describes these transformative influences and then explores the potential consequences This is the 117th volume of the Jossey Bass quarterly report series New Directions for Evaluation an official publication of the American Evaluation Association Who's who Among American High School Students ,1994 Journal of Korean Medical Science ,2006 The State of State English Standards, 2005 Sandra Stotsky,2005 Who's Who Among American High School Students, 1987-88, 6 ,1988-12 Control Engineering ,1969 Instrumentation and automatic control systems Modeling and Simulation ,1977 The Dairymen's League News ,1933 Canadian Poultry Review ,1937 Corpus Almanac & Canadian Sourcebook ,1997 The FairTest Examiner ,1999
