La dimension extérieure de l'espace de liberté, de sécurité et de justice de l'Union européenne après le Traité de Lisbonne Catherine Flaesch-Mougin, Lucia Serena Rossi, 2013-04-03 Le présent ouvrage est le résultat d'une recherche conjointe entre les Universités de Bologne, Rennes et Bruxelles sur le thème de la dimension extérieure de l'espace de liberté, de sécurité et de justice de l'Union européenne. Cette recherche a été soutenue par la Commission européenne dans le cadre de l'Action Jean Monnet. Elle associe des professeurs et chercheurs de renom qui conjuguent leurs compétences et situent leur analyse à l'intersection des politiques internes et des politiques externes de l'Union européenne. Les auteurs valuent de manière critique l'impact du traité de Lisbonne et de la pratique de l'Union concernant la dimension extérieure de l'ELSJ. Cette dimension dont l'importance ne cesse de croître oblige l'Union à concilier des impératifs parfois contradictoires entre les objectifs sécuritaires de l'ELSJ ou ceux de l'action extérieure ou encore avec les valeurs sur lesquelles elle est fondée. Les auteurs tentent de répondre à différentes questions induites par le nouveau système de représentation extérieure de l'Union dans le domaine de l'ELSJ. Quelles sont les retombées juridiques du nouveau système? Quel est globalement son impact politique? Ne risque-t-on pas une incursion croissante de la politique étrangère et de sécurité commune PESC dans les aspects sécuritaires de l'ELSJ?

They Won't Take No for an Answer Elizabeth Ayre, 1996 The Bernard van Leer Foundation initiated a program in France entitled Relais Enfants Parents to bring the children of prisoners to the forefront of social, political, and judicial policy. The Relais Enfants Parents program works to safeguard the psychological and emotional development of children by serving as a link between them and their imprisoned parents. The program tries to preserve and often to recreate the bond between the children and their parents, which separation often weakens. This book shows how Relais Enfants Parents came into existence with initial resistance from the penal system and doubt from imprisoned parents. The book presents the rationale behind the creation of the program and describes a pilot program that evolved since 1972. Strategies are presented that are used to strengthen parent-child relationships, fortify parent roles, and help children overcome the stressful experience of a first visit to an imprisoned parent. The significance of volunteers, their training roles, and contributions to helping these children to become a part of the society is discussed. Contains references after each
