Geraci,2014-06-13 Millions of users have taken up residence in virtual worlds and in those worlds they find opportunities to revisit and rewrite their religious lives Robert M Geraci argues that virtual worlds and video games have become a locus for the satisfaction of religious needs providing many users with devoted communities opportunities for ethical reflection a meaningful experience of history and human activity and a sense of transcendence Using interviews surveys and his own first hand experience within the virtual worlds Geraci shows how World of Warcraft and Second Life provide participants with the opportunity to rethink what it means to be religious in the contemporary world Not all participants use virtual worlds for religious purposes
