Contemporary Debates in Epistemology Blake Roeber, Ernest Sosa, Matthias Steup, John Turri, 2024-04-02 The perfect introduction to contemporary epistemology completely overhauled for its third edition. In Contemporary Debates in Epistemology pairs of specially commissioned essays defend opposing views on some of today's most compelling epistemological issues and problems. Offering a unique blend of accessibility and originality, this timely volume brings together fresh debates on hotly contested issues to provide readers with the opportunity to engage in comparative analysis of constantly changing and developing epistemological concepts. Now in its third edition, Contemporary Debates in Epistemology features up-to-date coverage of the latest developments in the field. Entirely new essays examine questions of epistemic normativity and knowledge, the relationship between belief and credence, the possibility of internalist epistemology, epistemic instrumentalism, norms of assertion, the use of thought experiments in epistemology, and more. Presents a rigorous yet accessible introduction to the major topics in contemporary epistemology. Contains head-to-head chapters offering forceful advocacy of opposing philosophical stances. Focuses on core areas of epistemology. Uses a lively debate format that sharply defines the issues and encourages further discussion. All new chapters provide fully updated coverage of new and emerging topics in epistemology. Part of the Wiley-Blackwell Contemporary Debates in Philosophy series. Contemporary Debates in Epistemology Third Edition remains an essential resource for advanced undergraduate philosophy majors, graduate students in philosophy, and epistemologists who want to keep current with contemporary epistemological debates. Marginality and Condemnation, 3rd Edition Carolyn Brooks, Bernard Schissel, 2021-12-13T00:00:00Z Includes test bank and PowerPoint slides for professors who have adopted the text in their course. Contact examrequest@fernpub.ca for more information. This well-received criminology textbook, now in its third edition, argues that crime must be understood as both a social and a political phenomenon. Using this lens, Marginality and Condemnation contends that what is defined as criminal, how we respond to crime, and why individuals behave in anti-social ways are often the result of individual and systemic social inequalities and disparities in power. Beginning with an overview of criminological discourse, mainstream approaches, and new directions in criminological theory, the book is then divided into sections based on key social inequalities of class, gender, race, and age, each of which begins with an outline of the general issues for understanding crime and an introduction that guides readers through the empirical chapters that follow. The studies provide insights into general issues in criminology, ranging from the historical and current nature of crime and criminal justice to the various responses to criminality. Readers are encouraged and challenged to understand crime and justice through concrete analyses rather than abstract argumentation In addition to a new introductory chapter that confronts how we define crime measure crime and understand and use criminology in this millennium the third edition provides new chapters examining crime in relation to the environment terrorism masculinity children and youth and Aboriginal gangs and the legacy of colonialism Animals and Ethics - Third Edition Angus Taylor,2009-05-27 Can animals be regarded as part of the moral community To what extent if at all do they have moral rights Are we wrong to eat them hunt them or use them for scientific research Can animal liberation be squared with the environmental movement Taylor traces the background of these debates from Aristotle to Darwin and sets out the views of numerous contemporary philosophers including Peter Singer Tom Regan Mary Anne Warren J Baird Callicott and Martha Nussbaum with ethical theories ranging from utilitarianism to eco feminism The new edition also includes provocative quotations from some of the major writers in the field As the final chapter insists animal ethics is more than just an academic question it is intimately connected both to our understanding of what it means to be human and to pressing current issues such as food shortages environmental degradation and climate change The Essays Francis Bacon,1890 The essays, or, Counsels civil and moral, of Francis Bacon, ed. by S.H.
