Exploring women's empowerment using a mixed methods approach Doss, Cheryl, Rubin, Deborah, 2021-07-19 Interest in the meaning and measurement of women's empowerment has become a stated goal of many programs in international development This paper explores a collaborative process of studying women's empowerment in agricultural research for development using both quantitative and qualitative methods It draws on three bodies of research around empowerment growing interest in qualitative methods and measurement research especially the conceptualization and adaptations of the Women s Empowerment in Agriculture Index Employing mixed methods over more than a decade of cooperation among researchers from the Global South and the Global North has challenged the methods and findings of each approach The work has led to new insights about gender differences in what empowerment means to women and to men the importance of context interrelationships among dimensions of empowerment and the need for greater precision in terms and measures particularly around decision making asset ownership and time use Such collaborative research benefits from a long timeframe to build trust and shared understandings across disciplines The paper concludes with suggestions for the next phase of research

China: The Great Transition Bhabani Shankar Nayak,2023-03-06 This book explores the great transition of China from a subsistence agrarian economy to a technologically driven economic powerhouse which reflects the achievements of the hardworking Chinese people China continues to grow as the second largest economy of the world from 2010 onwards It is going to be the largest economy in the world by putting US economy behind The Chinese GDP has increased of 1 500 times from 1952 This book examines the transformation of China and its economic growth is neither miraculous nor a product of market economy Further this book states economic development in China as a product of political pursuit shaped by the Chinese people led by the Communist Party of China from 1921 onwards China is not only the workshop of the world today but also works as the engine of global economic growth and recovery of crisis ridden global economy This book also shows how phenomenal Chinese economic growth and development led to the significant fall of poverty in China This book states that the prosperous transition in China continues to show features of combined and uneven development This is evident as China has largest billionaires but many people still live and practice subsistence economy However many Chinese do not have access to clean air water sanitation and dignified sources of livelihoods This book shows the social economic and political inequalities as hindrances to deepening of democratic and egalitarian development in China This book states that the gender gap and widening gap between urban and rural China are twin serious challenges to progressive transformations in China The Chinese state and government are trying to implement different policies and programmes to overcome these challenges
