A Handbook for Student Nurses, third edition Wendy Benbow, Gill Jordan, Anneyce Knight, Sara White, 2021-08-09 A Handbook for Student Nurses is widely recommended in institutions across the UK and is essential reading for new students. The book provides an introduction to the essential background knowledge that pre-registration nursing students need as a foundation for their training. This third edition has been thoroughly revised to reflect the new NMC standards of proficiency for registered nurses and the most recent update of the NMC Code. It also features a completely new chapter on health promotion and incorporates the very latest developments in nurse education and in the health service. A Handbook for Student Nurses covers the core of first year nursing studies: Practice supervision and assessment, Communication, Legal and professional issues, Values, ethics and cultural awareness, Reflection and personal development, Quality care and evidence-based practice, Study skills, Public health and promoting health and wellbeing. An excellent introductory text for student nurses written in a clear and illuminative style. Lecturer, Adult Nursing.

Executive Skills and Writing Instruction Leslie E. Laud, 2025-11-20 Students learn to write well by developing fundamental literacy skills and also by knowing how to get started, stay on track and persist toward meaningful goals. From leading science of writing expert Leslie E. Laud, this is the first book that helps K-12 educators harness the power of executive skills in evidence-based writing instruction. Laud shows how self-regulation supports learning and growth in every step of the writing process, from planning to drafting, editing and revising. The book provides a clear roadmap and practical strategies for teaching and scaffolding both writing skills and executive skills. It is packed with sample lessons, writing prompts, extended examples, Take It to the Classroom tips and reproducible, downloadable tools.

Teaching Evidence-Based Academic Writing for ESL Educators Pat Strauss, 2026-01-22 This resource helps teachers prepare ESL students for the demands of academic writing that they will encounter in tertiary institutions when they undertake study in English. With over thirty ready-to-use but adaptable lesson plans, this book uses a scaffolded, sequenced approach to instruction so that students are able to progress through their development and practice of academic writing with each iterative lesson through the three distinct writing categories of planning, generating and reviewing. The book includes writing exercises for students to practice evidence-based writing and provide justification for their claims, along with examples and answers with explanations for teachers The lessons themselves will cover a range of writing strategies including critical reading and analysis note taking organisational strategies using academic language critiquing and evaluating texts constructing and organising an argument brainstorming and many more This is a practical text perfect for tertiary and secondary level teachers of EAL ESL students as well as educators working with students in bridging programs for first language speakers of English tutors and academic advisors
