Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Home Affairs Committee

Family Reunion Application Form:

House of Commons - Home Affairs Committee: Asylum - HC 71 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Home Affairs Committee,2013-10-11 The asylum system is overburdened and under severe pressure The backlog of asylum cases that should have been cleared by 2011 has reached 32 600 with some people waiting up to 16 years for a decision Thousands appear to be living in a sub standard level of housing as part of the COMPASS contract supplied by the private contractors G4S Serco and Clearel These companies must be held accountable The quality of decision making is also of great concern as 30% of appeals against initial decisions were allowed in 2012 The impact of decisions are grave if asylum is not granted when it should be then the UK is failing to protect a vulnerable person If asylum is granted when it is not deserved then the UK may well end up harbouring war criminals and terrorists Those who apply for asylum should be checked against national and international law enforcement agency and security databases to ensure that we are not harbouring those who intend us harm The Home Secretary has to give assurance that any anomalies in the process which have allowed decisions such as this to take place are addressed immediately The are also concerns about the level of support available to those who seek asylum in the UK The Immigration and Asylum Act 1999 section 4 which provides a reduced support system for asylum seekers who had had their claim refused but were unable to return to their country of origin through reasons that were no fault of theirs is not a solution Teaching Migration and Asylum Law Richard Grimes,Věra Honuskova,Ulrich Stege,2021-12-30 This highly topical book demonstrates the theoretical and practical importance of the study of migration law It outlines approaches that may be taken in the design delivery and monitoring of this study in law schools and universities to ensure an optimum level of learning Drawing on examples of best practice from around the world this book uses a theoretical framework and examples from real clients to simulations to help promote the learning and teaching of the law affecting migrants It showcases contributions from over 30 academics and practitioners experienced in asylum and immigration law and helps to unpick how to teach the complex international laws and procedures relating to migration between different countries and regions The various sections of the book explore educational best practice what content can be covered models for teaching and learning strategies to deal with challenges and ways forward The book will appeal to scholars researchers and practitioners of migration and asylum law those teaching migration law electives and involved in curriculum design as well as students of international common and civil law A Chronicle of China's Notary History (1902-1979) Yu Cai,2023-09-26 This book seeks to trace the notarial history of China from 1902 to 1979 While working on this trailblazing effort the author taps into a rich variety of artifacts especially the notarial documents archived records manuals and journals from private collection or originally issued by China s judicial authorities during different periods No similar book has been published so far Many of these items are taken from old publications and notarial documents that the author purchased from grass root vendors The book complements the text with illustrations and the descriptions of the same articles are consistent throughout narrative

Even more remarkable is that many rare notarial historical materials in Chinese and foreign languages are available for the first time This book is a must read for researchers and students need in their understanding of China s judicial system or China s history It gives a complete introduction to the development and evolution of China s notarial system which has great reference value for those who study this subject
