Frances English Edition:

Frances Burney's Cecilia Catherine M. Parisian, 2016-04-15 In her exhaustive publishing history of Frances Burney's Cecilia Or Memoirs of an Heiress Catherine Parisian mines an extensive archival record that includes portions of the original manuscript annotated page proofs legal records relative to its copyright and an abundance of letters to chronicle the novel's composition printing and publication from its first edition in 1782 to the present day Oxford World's Classics paperback. Generally regarded on its publication as the most important novel since Tobias Smollett's Humphrey Clinker Cecilia is a deft blend of the satire of Henry Fielding with the sentimentality of Samuel Richardson that brings a female perspective to the novel while perceptively probing class and gender relations in eighteenth century British society. Parisian combines the methods of the book historian with those of the bibliographer to show how the two usefully inform one another and bear on the interpretation of the literary text. Examining 51 different editions of Cecilia Parisian considers what these editions reveal about Cecilia's reading audiences and what insights these books provide into the printing and publishing trends of the past 200 years. Lavishly illustrated and accessibly written her timely history demonstrates the importance of Cecilia to the art of the novel and the history of the book. Richard Francis Burton, 2023-12-12 In The Complete Works of Sir Richard Francis Burton Illustrated they remain timeless explorations of the human condition making this collection an invaluable resource for scholars and casual readers alike.

Malvina Marijn S Kaplan, 2015-09-30 Often linked to the works of early Romanticism Sophie Cottin's Malvina 1803 was a bestselling sentimental novel. First published in France the English translation by Elizabeth Gunning a prolific novelist in her own right allowed Cottin's book to achieve success internationally. This is the first modern scholarly edition of Malvina.

French Works in English Translation: 1751-1760 J. A. R. Séguin, 1966 Sir Francis Drake's West Indian Voyage, 1585-86 Mary Frear Keeler, 2017-05-15 Significant in the history of Anglo-Spanish relations and of English ventures was Drake's expedition to the West Indies in 1585-86. His raids on Spanish towns on both sides of the Atlantic were aimed not only to gather treasure but to bring a military challenge to the empire of Philip II. The voyage was linked also with the plantation projects of Raleigh and ended with Drake bringing home the discouraged settlers of the first Virginia colony. Although not a financial success the expedition attracted wide attention in England and the continent and was a prelude to the events of 1588. For over three centuries after the voyage the main source of information about it was the lively narrative strongly propagandistic in tone that was published in 1588 and 1589. In the present volume this account attributed to Captain Walter Bigges has been critically edited in the light of evidence now available from English and Spanish sources. Printed also are documents relating to ships and personnel and to financial accounts of the expedition. Included too are the journal from the vice admiral's ship the Primrose edited from the original manuscript the fragmentary journals from ships of two other major officers and an important newsletter. Among illustrations are a previously unpublished map relating to Drake's stop at

Vigo as well as the Boazio maps which are shown in differing sizes and details Dr Keeler's introduction discusses the expedition in the context of Elizabethan policies in the pre Armada years She points out new evidence on Drake's administrative practices on his negotiations with Spanish officials and on his dealings with a troublesome rear admiral Appendices provide critical notes on the Boazio maps and on the circumstances of the publication of the Bigges account This is a new print on demand hardback edition of the volume first published in 1981 The Collected Historical Works of Sir Francis Palgrave, K.H. Sir Francis Palgrave, 1921 "The" Athenaeum, 1897 Publisher and Bookseller, 1893 Vols for 1871 76 1913 14 include an extra number The Christmas bookseller separately paged and not included in the consecutive numbering of the regular series Catalogue of Law Books, 1882 The Dictionary of National Biography, Founded in 1882 by George Smith, 1922 The Bookseller, 1896 Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum, 1886 The Caxton Head Catalogue James Tregaskis (Firm), 1915 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record, 1910 Memoir of the Rev.
