Chapters 1-5

- 1. Using TWO behavioral characteristics apiece, characterize Victor's parents (Alphonse and Caroline). Be sure to include supporting evidence from the text.
 - Alphonse would be best described as strict and harsh. This description is accurate because on page 24, paragraph three it states, I communicated my discovery to my father. My father looked carelessly at the title page of my book and said, "Ah! Cornelius Agrippa! My dear Victor, do not waste your time upon this; it is sad trash." This statement would have been fine if it was followed by an explanation for his reasoning. However, it was not. Caroline's personality is loving and thoughtful. In this novel when Elizabeth is sick Caroline helps nurse her back to health. Caroline does this even though Elizabeth is contagious; resulting in Caroline's death. Her action shows that she cared more about Elizabeth than herself.

- 2. Explain Elizabeth's background and how she came to be part of the Frankenstein family. Also, explain Victor's perception of her.
 - Elizabeth's birth parents died causing her to be raised in a foster home. Caroline saw Elizabeth and fell in love with her so she decided to adopt her into the Frankenstein family. Victor loved Elizabeth so much; he thought she was beautiful, kind, smart, and perfect. In the novel it states that Victor thought of Elizabeth as his own to protect, love, and cherish.

- 3. Explain the difference in Victor and Elizabeth's interests, as described in the beginning of chapter 2. What Romantic/ Gothic characteristics are represented?
 - Elizabeth was calm and had a more concentrated disposition. On the other hand, Victor was capable of more intense application and was more deeply smitten with the thirst of knowledge. Victor's liking for more adventurous things show references of gothic literature and Elizabeth's calm and sweet demeanor added a softer touch to the pair's personality; referencing somewhat of romantic literature. In page 23, paragraph three it states that Victor's temper was sometimes violent and his passion vehement. While the saintly soul of Elizabeth shone like a shrine- dedicated lamp in their peaceful home.

Worm Work Janelle A. Schwartz,2012 Worms Natural history is riddled with them Literature is crawling with them From antiquity to today the ubiquitous and multiform worm provokes an immediate discomfort and unconscious distancing it remains us against them in anthropocentric anxiety So there is always something muddled or dirty or even offensive when talking about worms Rehabilitating the lowly worm into a powerful aesthetic trope Janelle A Schwartz proposes a new framework for understanding such a strangely animate nature Worms she declares are the very matter with which the Romantics rethought the relationship between a material world in constant flux and the human mind working to understand it. Worm Work studies the lesser known natural historical records of Abraham Trembley and his contemporaries and the familiar works of Erasmus Darwin, Charles Darwin, William Blake, Mary Shelley, and John Keats to expose the worm as an organism that is not only reviled as a taxonomic terror but revered as a sign of great order in nature as well as narrative. This book traces a pattern of cultural production, a vermiculture that is as transformative of matter as it is of mind. It distinguishes decay or division as positive processes in Romantic era writings, compounded by generation or renewal, and used to represent the biocentric complex structuring of organicism. Offering the worm as an archetypal figure through which to recast the evolution of a literary order alongside questions of taxonomy from 1740 to 1820 and on, Schwartz unearths Romanticism as a rich humus of natural historical investigation and literary creation. Reference Quarterly, 1987 Film Review, 1996
