Engineering Science N4 July 2014:

Construct Iain Borden, 2015-12-09 Construct introduces a new category of architecture and engineering in our cities. These structures are highly visible yet often ignored, large scale and built without traditional designers. They are characterised by substantial technical innovation and expertise embedded in the everyday lives of thousands of urban citizens and serve as embodiments of cultural and political meanings. These constructions represent an overlooked but significant aspect of our urban landscape, combining technical advancement with cultural significance despite their often anonymous design origins. The opening chapter introduces Construct as an architectural, academic and methodological concept, including its interdisciplinary approach combining history, critical theory, ethnography and visual studies. Six independent chapters then explore specific recent manifestations around the world: the resund bridge between Copenhagen and Malm tower cranes in Dubai, Shibuya pedestrian intersection in Tokyo, Venice skatepark in Los Angeles, Limehouse Link tunnel in London and the Singapore Flyer observation wheel in Singapore. Each is interpreted in its own context and as a manifestation of its shared architectural typology worldwide. Construct will appeal to those interested in the architecture, urbanism and experience of contemporary cities worldwide and particularly those working in the fields of architecture, media studies, planning, sociology and urban geography.

Blueprint for a Battlestar Rod Pyle, 2016-09-01 An enjoyable source of information on a wide variety of real or imagined technological marvels of the space age. National Space Society. This beautifully illustrated pop science book answers the enduring questions raised by science fiction: such as Do hoverboards really exist, how can you bring a dinosaur back to life and can we really travel in time and space. Packed with stunning images including seventy five illustrations created exclusively for this book. Blueprint for a Battlestar takes twenty five remarkable and memorable technologies from the world of sci fi from Star Wars and The Matrix to Ironman and The Terminator. Each concept will be explained and dissected to reveal the real science behind it. Some are boldly obvious such as the Death Star and exoskeletons and some less so, think bio ports or cloaking devices. All are fascinating and will make wonderful explorations into the science of the future as we understand it today. This is dream fuel for aspiring STEM students of all sorts. Blueprint for a Battlestar is a gateway drug for brainstorming that could change the world. Seattle Book Review. Will take readers on a fact finding mission where the science is explained and the fiction just may become reality. Can it really work. For the sake of all those young engineers out there dreaming of a future filled with massive battlestars stretching far across the galaxy we can only hope. Amazing Stories Magazine. A fun book that offers serious exploration of some of the technology that could be common place in the not too distant future. The Review Graveyard.

Curriculum Leadership by Middle Leaders Kelvin Heng Kiat Tan, Mary Anne Heng, Christina Lim-Ratnam, 2016-08-12 Curriculum Leadership by Middle Leaders focusses on major issues relating to the continuing national and international discourse on curriculum leadership and highlights the vital role of middle leaders in schools. School leadership has focused primarily on first order change.

involving school leaders or principals This book seeks to put the spotlight on second order change that involves curriculum leadership and professional development support on the part of middle leaders for more sustainable and long term change in teaching and learning that will influence what happens in classrooms With timely and thought provoking contribution from authors who pursue a range of scholarly interests in multiple educational settings the book is guided by several underlying questions How might we re envision curriculum leadership so that it addresses both local and global concerns and aspirations How might we better grasp how middle leaders understand and respond to the pressures of educational reform initiatives How might middle leaders transform pressures into possibilities This book will appeal to current teachers those currently undertaking teacher training and students or academics carrying out research in the field of educational leadership
