

A meet-up with my friend

Last Saturday, my friend Camilla and I met up. She lives in London, the capital of England and I live in Edinburgh, the capital of Scotland. We decided to meet in York. We both travelled by train. Our last meeting was fourteen months ago, so we had plenty to talk about! We met beside the clock in the station. First, we went to a café to have a coffee. We both had a flat white. Camilla had a piece of chocolate cake and I had lemon cake. Then, we went to see York

Minster, a cathedral. Next, we went to the Shambles, a medieval street with lovely artisan shops. By then, we were ready for a late lunch. We went to an Italian place called Gino's. Camilla had a lasagne and I had tuna ravioli. We shared a mixed salad. We drank fizzy water. We just kept talking! Camilla told me about her new job, working in an art gallery in Hammersmith, and I told her all about my friends at college. By then, it was late afternoon. We went back to the station together and said our goodbyes and we hugged. We decided our next meeting would be a weekend in London and I would stay at Camilla's flat. It was great to see her!
